Who will shape a few words before I am cast about without sunlight and a smattering of moonbeams?
Let me wander one last time across new-born grass
with soundless footsteps.
No need to juggle,
warming my lips,
my heart still remembers
and whispers...good night.

She was born August 1, 1925 at Wilkes-Barre, PA to Frank and Vida Mae Barney. Mrs. Maher moved to Conway, Arkansas to be with her daughter and family after the death of Mrs. Maher's husband. This gave Betty the opportunity to spoil her grandson, Nathan, who was the apple of her eye. Betty became active at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, running their food pantry where she was affectionately known as "Ms. Betty" to her co-workers, fellow parishioners, and clients. Betty had a wonderful, quirky sense of humor that made those around her laugh; she spent many happy moments discussing Seinfeld reruns with her friends. Her daughter, Beth, will miss her Mom the most since they shared many secrets, many laughs and many shopping trips. The two always said that when they headed out in the morning on a shopping trip, they never knew where they'd end up.
