FOLKS, CARRIE JOE SCHLEMMER 83 Dunnellon - The gator nation has lost one of its most loyal supporters. Since childhood, back when the University of Florida was still an all boys school, Carrie Joe Schlemmer Folks was in attendance at the Florida football games. Eighty years later, she still managed the long walks and large crowds to cheer her beloved Gators on to victory. Football wasn't the only sport Carrie Joe enjoyed. Baseball, basketball, tennis or golf, all that mattered to Carrie Joe was that she was playing or watching a sport. She was truly an athlete at heart. Sports, however, weren't her only love. Born in Cedar Key, Florida in 1924, Carrie Joe grew up with a love for the coastal town that boasts fresh seafood and small town living. "Granny always talked about riding the large sea turtles down on the dock as a child," said Sarah Joe Thomas, Carrie Joe's granddaughter and namesake. In her high school years, her family moved to Inverness where her father was relocated because of his job. It was at Citrus High School that Carrie met the love of her life Ned H. Folks who was recruited to Citrus High from Dunnellon to play football. One month after graduation in 1942, the couple eloped right before Ned was to leave for his stationing with the Coast Guard in Maryland. Even a war couldn't keep Carrie Joe away from her new husband. Soon after Ned was sent to Baltimore, Carrie Joe wrote a letter informing him that she was coming to be with him. Not knowing if he had even received her letter, she struck out on the next train and thankfully he was there to meet her when she arrived. After the couples service with the military ended, the Folks' were back to Ned's family farm in Dunnellon where they would call home. Five children and sixty years later, the couple still enjoyed dancing with one another to the sounds from the big band ear. Carrie Joe Folks went to be with the Lord Tuesday, June 24, 2008. Her loving husband Ned, two children Sarah Katherine and Ned H. Folks, Jr. and her great-granddaughter Lila Rae Tyre preceded her in death. She is survived by her brother August (Bucky) Schlemmer, sister Lily Mena Clack, daughters Linda Folks, Sarah Cannon and Susan Cannon, son-in-laws Ronnie Cannon and Perry Cannon and her seven grandkids and seven great-grandkids. She was a woman greatly revered by her friends and family for her faith in God, zest for life and loving spirit. She will be greatly missed. The family will receive friends from 5-8 p.m. Thursday, June 26th at ROBERTS FUNERAL HOME in Dunnellon. Funeral Services will be held Friday, June 27th at 10 a.m. at the First Baptist Church of Dunnellon with Rev. Russell Randall and Dr. Bob Brooks officiating. FOLKS, CARRIE JOE SCHLEMMER 83 Dunnellon - The gator nation has lost one of its most loyal supporters. Since childhood, back when the University of Florida was still an all boys school, Carrie Joe Schlemmer Folks was in attendance at the Florida football games. Eighty years later, she still managed the long walks and large crowds to cheer her beloved Gators on to victory. Football wasn't the only sport Carrie Joe enjoyed. Baseball, basketball, tennis or golf, all that mattered to Carrie Joe was that she was playing or watching a sport. She was truly an athlete at heart. Sports, however, weren't her only love. Born in Cedar Key, Florida in 1924, Carrie Joe grew up with a love for the coastal town that boats fresh seafood and small town living. "Granny always talked about riding the large sea turtles down on the dock as a child," said Sarah Joe Thomas, Carrie Joe's granddaughter and namesake. In her high school years, her family moved to Inverness where her father was relocated because of his job. It was at Citrus High School that Carrie met the love of her life Ned H. Folks who was recruited to Citrus High from Dunnellon to play football. One month after graduation in 1942, the couple eloped right before Ned was to leave for his stationing with the Coast Guard in Maryland. Even a war couldn't keep Carrie Joe away from her new husband. Soon after Ned was sent to

Baltimore, Carrie Joe wrote a letter informing him that she was coming to be with him. Not knowing if he had even received her letter, she struck out on the next train and thankfully he was there to meet her when she arrived. After the couples service with the military ended, the Folks' were back to Ned's family farm in Dunnellon where they would call home. Five children and sixty years later, the couple still enjoyed dancing with one another to the sounds from the big band ear. Carrie Joe Folks went to be with the Lord Tuesday, June 24, 2008. Her loving husband Ned, tow children Sarah Katherine and Ned H. Folks, Jr. and her great-granddaughter Lila Rae Tyre preceded her in death. She is survived by her brother August (Bucky) Schlemmer, sister Lily Mena Clack, daughters Linda Folks, Sarah Cannon and Susan Cannon, son-in-laws Ronnie Cannon and Perry Cannon and her seven grandkids and seven great-grandkids. She was a woman greatly revered by her friends and family for her faith in God, zest for life and loving spirit. She will be greatly missed. The family grew to include Libby, Marty and Becky. The family expanded to include his sister Helene, and his three nieces Jodi, Mala, and Kathryn. His greatest love was medicine, his patients, the hospital, and his family. He practiced for 33 years as a surgeon in Florida. He was known for his compassion, energy and industry. After he retired, he volunteered at the Marion County Public Health Department Surgical clinic for 14 years. Dr. Marks was an active member of the Ocala Lions, Club (including their breakfast club, the R.O.M.E.O.'s) . He was also a member of the Elks, the Marion County Medical Society and the Medical Honorary Society. He loved to hunt, fish, and swim, snow ski and travel with his family and wife, Kay. He was a member and past President of Temple B'nai Darom. Dr. Marks was preceded in death by his parents, Henry and Mabel Marks, and his sister, Helene Marks Crawford. He is survived by his immediate family, wife and five children and their spouses, and his twelve grandchildren; his sister, Jo Heyman and many nieces, nephews and cousins. He is survived by his second wife, Marie-Elena; and two sons, Tony of Ashburn, VA and Robert of Minneapolis, MN. He enjoyed six grandchildren and two great grandchildren in the U.S. and Japan. A tally at his retirement included technical schools and colleges in 42 different countries scattered throughout South East Asia, the Middle East, and North East. George was sometimes called to explain the origin of cultural differences and conflicts, and how he felt they could be reduced. George was a veteran of WWII. He was an active member of The Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) over 59 years, and headed the local Friends Meeting of Ocala for the past 25 years. Over time, he became a strong advocate for peace, and participated in the vigils and demonstrations of Marions for Peace, and spoke and wrote against the military operations he held unjustified, until his physical condition declined. While more constrained in mobility towards the end, he was mentally active up to the day before he died, planning new things, writing the memoirs of his brothers and sisters in a family of 9, and looking forward to visitors and his 90th birthday in August. Following his wishes, his body was cremated; his ashes will be scattered and distributed by family members at some of his favorite places. Newkirk, 89, passed away July 2, 2008 at his home in Ocala, under the care of Hospice. He is survived by his second wife, Marie-Elena; and two sons, Tony of Ashburn, VA and Robert of Minneapolis, MN. He enjoyed six grandchildren and two great grandchildren in the U.S. and Japan. Across many careers and avocations, George considered himself a cross-cultural psychologist at heart, and specialized in the rehabilitation of floundering educational institutions in developing countries. A tally at his retirement included technical schools and colleges in 42 different countries scattered throughout South East Asia, the Middle East, and North East. George was sometimes called to explain the origin of cultural differences and conflicts, and how he felt they could be reduced. George was a veteran of WWII. He was an active member of The Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) over 59 years, and headed the local Friends Meeting of Ocala for the past 25 years. Over time, he became a strong advocate for peace, and participated in the vigils and demonstrations of Marions for Peace, and spoke and wrote against the military operations he held unjustified, until his physical condition declined. While more constrained in mobility towards the end, he was mentally active up to the day before he died, planning new things, writing the memoirs of his brothers and sisters in a family of 9, and looking forward to visitors and his 90th birthday in August. Following his wishes, his body was cremated; his ashes will be scattered and distributed by family members at some of his favorite places. A Memorial Service for family and all friends is planned for mid-August at his home in Ocala, to be announced shortly. The Gainesville Meeting House is also planning a Quaker Memorial Service for mid-October, also to be announced. Arrangements by ROBERTS FUNERAL HOMES, Bruce Chapel East, 2739 SE Maricamp Rd. Ocala. LANE, VICTORIA E. BERGMAN 63 Dunnellon - Victoria Erma Bergman Lane, of Dunnellon, FL passed away Friday, August 1, 2008 in Ocala, FL. She was born in Utrecht, the Netherlands on May 8, 1945, "Victory in Europe" Day. She was the daughter of Dr. John Tehupeiry Bergman and Ymkje Haisma Bergman. Shortly after the war, the family moved to Indonesia, the former Dutch East Indies, where Victoria attended elementary school in both Jakarta and Surabaya. Later the Bergman family immigrated to the US where Victoria attended high school in California and New York. She graduated from the Irena Academy in Neufchatel, Switzerland. She was a graduate of Monmouth University, New Jersey where she received a Masters Degree in French and in Education. Recently, she retired as a DOD Contract Specialist, Ft. Monmouth, NJ, upon which she moved from Bricktown, NJ to Dunnellon, FL. She had just completed a Grand World Cruise when she passed away suddenly. Her birth saved her father's life. The day of Victoria's birth was not only significant as "Victory in Europe" for WWII, but because her father was called home for her delivery; it saved him from a revenge execution that occurred that day at her father's unit. He was a member of the Dutch Resistance where he led a group of doctors who routinely disqualified Dutchmen from being forced into German labor camps. By falsifying medical records and indicating that they were tubercular, her father and his unit saved approximately 10,000 men from death in the labor camps. However, during the German withdrawal between May 5th through May 8th, a series of revenge executions took place throughout the Netherlands, among which was her father's entire unit. Victoria's birth spared her father as he was home delivering her. She was married to Donald Lane of Point Pleasant, NJ. Surviving are her longtime companion, Ed Ulbricht of Dunnellon, her sister Jitske M. Bergman of Port St. Lucie, FL, her brother LTC (ret) Willem K. Bergman of Brussels, Belgium, her niece, Ingrid-Jacoba Smith of Tampa, her nephews, Sybren Daniel Smith of Ft. Lauderdale, LCDR Alex Bergman, USCG and Eric Bergman, the latter both of California. Victoria has been a member of the Crown Association for over 25 years and was known as "Shy Sally". She was also a long time member of the American Rose Society. Upon her move to Florida, she joined the Red Hat Society Chapter 13627, NAERFE - Chapter 2279, Florida Native Plant Society and the Rainbow Springs Golf and Country Club, Rainbow Springs Garden Club. LANE, VICTORIA E. BERGMAN 63 Dunnellon - Victoria Erma Bergman Lane, of Dunnellon, FL passed away Friday, August 1, 2008 in Ocala, FL. She was born in Utrecht, the Netherlands on May 8, 1945, "Victory in Europe" Day. She was the daughter of Dr. John Tehupeior Bergman and Ymkje Haisma Bergman. Shortly after the war, the family moved to Indonesia, the former Dutch East Indies, where Victoria attended elementary school in both Jakarta and Surabaya. Later the Bergman family immigrated to the US where Victoria attended high school in California and New York. She graduated from the Irena Academy in Neufchatel, Switzerland. She was a graduate of Monmouth University, New Jersey where she received a Masters Degree in French and in Education. Recently, she retired as a DOD Contract Specialist, Ft. Monmouth, NJ, upon which she moved from Bricktown, NJ to Dunnellon, FL. She had just completed a Grand World Cruise when she passed away suddenly. Her birth saved her father's life. The day of Victoria's birth was not only significant as "Victory in Europe" for WWII, but because her father was called home for her delivery; it saved him from a revenge execution that occurred that day at her father's unit. He was a member of the Dutch Resistance where he led a group of doctors who routinely disqualified Dutchmen from being forced into German labor camps. By falsifying medical records and indicating that they were tubercular, her father and his unit saved approximately 10,000 men from death in the labor camps. However, during the German withdrawal between May 5th through May 8th, a series of revenge executions took place throughout the Netherlands, among which was her father's entire unit. Victoria's birth spared her father as he was home delivering her. She was married to Donald Lane of Point Pleasant, NJ. Surviving are her longtime companion, Ed Ulbricht of Dunnellon, her sister Jitske M. Bergman of Port St. Lucie, FL, her brother LTC (ret) Willem K. Bergman of Brussels, Belgium, her niece, Ingrid-Jacoba Smith of Tampa, her nephews, Sybren Daniel Smith of Ft. Lauderdale, LCDR Alex Bergman, USCG and Eric Bergman, the latter both of California. Victoria has been a member of the Crown Association for over 25 years and was known as "Shy Sally". She was also a long time member of the American Rose Society. Upon her move to Florida, she joined the Red Hat Society Chapter 13627, NAERFE - Chapter 2279, Florida Native Plant Society and the Rainbow Springs Golf and Country Club, Rainbow Springs Garden

Club. Memorial service to be held 10 a.m. Saturday, August 9th at ROBERTS FUNERAL HOME of DUNNELLON, 19939 E. Pennsylvania Ave., Dunnellon, Florida, phone 352-489-2429.
