LOTTMANN, ARLENE LOUISE Arlene Louise (Knowles) Lottmann, age 82, of Sparta, WI, passed away on December 28, 2009 at Gundersen Lutheran Hospice in La Crosse, WI. She was born on February 14, 1927 to James and Lena Knowles. She grew up on the farm where she was born near Hillman, MN. She graduated from Onamia High School in 1944 and attended 9 months of teacher's training in St. Cloud, MN. She taught in rural schools in Dutton, MT, and in Raymond, Hillman, and Swatera, MN. While teaching in Raymond, she met her husband, Edwin Lottmann. They were married on August 8, 1947, and farmed in the Raymond and Hillman areas until 1963. When her husband went into the insurance business in 1963 she managed the office in their home until they retired in 1990. In 1968, they relocated from Hillman to Aitkin, MN, where they lived on Little Pine Lake for 25 years. One of Arlene's favorite things about living on the lake was watching and listening to the loons. In 1993, due to her husband's heart condition, they moved to Ocala, FL. Five years after her husband died in 1999, Arlene returned to the Midwest and lived in Sparta and Warrens, WI where she enjoyed the changing of the seasons and the wildlife, and the move also brought her closer to her family. Wherever Arlene lived, she was very active in the Lutheran church teaching Sunday School and VBS; leading Bible studies and Women's groups; singing solos, duets, and in the choir; serving on many different committees; and organizing libraries. She and her husband also supported many missionaries and traveled to Kenya, Africa, twice to visit missionary friends they had supported for many years. Arlene and her husband raised 5 children and took in an additional family of 5 in 1969. She enjoyed attending her children's and grandchildren's sports activities, plays and musicals, band and choir performances. Her hobbies included sewing, gardening, reading, and arts and crafts. Arlene is survived by: daughter Judy (Keith) Potter, aka Dr. Judy Lottmann of Warrens, WI, and son Matt Lindborg; daughter Kathy (Mario Arriola) Lottmann of Oregon City, OR; daughter Patricia (Kevin) Gorman of Lake Villa, IL, and children, Emily, Rachel, and Mitchell; son, Alan (Sharrill) Lottmann of Blairsville, GA; and 4 adopted children; She is also survived by granddaughters Alicia and Sarah and grandson Brian and 5 great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband, Edwin; daughter, Sandra; and a son, David Edwin. Memorial services were held Saturday, January 2, 2010 at 11 a.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, Sparta, with Reverend Matthew E. Toso officiating. Burial will be at a later time. Memorials may be given to Gundersen Lutheran Foundation, Tomah Hospice, and World Mission Prayer League. Online condolences may be offered at www.lanhammiller.com. LOTTMANN, ARLENE LOUISE Arlene Louise (Knowles) Lottmann, age 82, of Sparta, WI, passed away on December 28, 2009 at Gundersen Lutheran Hospice in La Crosse, WI. She was born on February 14, 1927 to James and Lena Knowles. She grew up on the farm where she was born near Hillman, MN. She graduated from Onamia High School in 1944 and attended 9 months of teacher's training in St. Cloud, MN. She taught in rural schools in Dutton, MT, and in Raymond, Hillman, and Swatera, MN. While teaching in Raymond, she met her husband, Edwin Lottmann. They were married on August 8, 1947, and farmed in the Raymond and Hillman areas until 1963. When her husband went into the insurance business in 1963 she managed the office in their home until they retired in 1990. In 1968, they relocated from Hillman to Aitkin, MN, where they lived on Little Pine Lake for 25 years. One of Arlene's favorite things about living on the lake was watching and listening to the loons. In 1993, due to her husband's heart condition, they moved to Ocala, FL. Five years after her husband died in 1999, Arlene returned to the Midwest and lived in Sparta and Warrens, WI where she enjoyed the changing of the seasons and the wildlife, and the move also brought her closer to her family. Wherever Arlene lived, she was very active in the Lutheran church teaching Sunday School and VBS; leading Bible studies and Women's groups; singing solos, duets, and in the choir; serving on many different committees; and organizing libraries. She and her husband also supported many missionaries and traveled to Kenya, Africa, twice to visit missionary friends they had supported for many years. Arlene and her husband raised 5 children and took in an additional family of 5 in 1969. She enjoyed attending her children's and grandchildren's sports activities, plays and musicals, band and choir performances. Her hobbies included sewing, gardening, reading, and arts and crafts. Arlene is survived by: daughter Judy (Keith) Potter, aka Dr. Judy Lottmann of Warrens, WI, and son Matt Lindborg; daughter Kathy (Mario Arriola) Lottmann of Oregon City, OR; daughter Patricia (Kevin) Gorman of Lake Villa, IL, and children, Emily, Rachel, and Mitchell; son, Alan (Sharrill) Lottmann of Blairsville, GA; and 4 adopted children; She is also survived by granddaughters Alicia and Sarah and grandson Brian and 5 great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband, Edwin; daughter, Sandra; and a son, David Edwin. Memorial services were held Saturday, January 2, 2010 at 11 a.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, Sparta, with Reverend Matthew E. Toso officiating. Burial will be at a later time. Memorials may be given to Gundersen Lutheran Foundation, Tomah Hospice, and World Mission Prayer League. McKAY, DONNA MARIAN Annandale Village, GA - Donna Marian McKay, 55, passed away December 27, 2009 at Annandale Village in Suwannee, Georgia. Donna grew up in Orange Lake, Florida where she attended the Orange Lake Baptist Church for many years. She moved with her mother, Marian Davis McKay, to Cocoa Beach, FL in 1978 where she lived until moving to London, England in 1985. After her mother's passing she relocated to Annandale Village in Suwannee, Georgia in January of 1986. Donna came into her own at Annandale. Over the years she received many awards for her enthusiasm, hard work, generosity and spirit. Donna progressed from a group living environment to having her own apartment in Lotz House, an independent living home at Annandale. Donna took great pride in keeping her apartment well decorated, and doing her share of the housework. The Lotz House girls were the best suite mates Donna could ever ask for. Donna began her working career at the Annandale opportunity workshop but quickly progressed to working in a variety of part time jobs at businesses in the Gwinnett area, which included stints at several restaurants. Finally she found her dream job, lobby hostess at the Suwannee McDonalds on Lawrenceville-Suwannee Rd. She loved her job and couldn't wait to go to work in the morning. Donna may very well have been the most loyal McDonalds employee in the world. Donna especially loved watching out for the small children that came to McDonalds. When she would travel to visit her family she never wanted to be away too long and after a week or two would begin to remind everyone that it was time for her to get back to work. For the next 15 years Donna, with a smile on her face, was a well recognized fixture at "her" McDonalds. When she reluctantly retired in 2004, she was honored at her retirement party by the owner of her McDonalds with a "Eat at McDonalds for Life" certificate. Donna's family owes McDonalds special thanks for fulfilling her life long goal of being able to have a working career. Over the years Donna became quite the traveler. She visited her brother and his family in London, England; Jakarta, Indonesia; Calgary, Canada; Boston, Massachusetts and Houston, Texas. She also traveled to Europe (Switzerland and Austria where she learned to snow ski) and the Bahamas on vacation. Donna loved to travel and never got off a plane without several new friends. Although she had Downs Syndrome, Donna never let her condition slow her down. She bowled every week for years, loved competing in the Special Olympics, had dozens of wonderful friends and always had a smile on her face. The 25 years that she lived at Annandale Village made it possible for her to have a fulfilling life, surrounded and supported by loving and caring people. Donna is survived by her loving brother, Frank (Sonny) McKay, sister-in-law Barbara McKay, nephews Tyler and Houston McKay, niece Kelsey Hohensee and many friends. A private service will be held at the Annandale Chapel Friday, January 29, 2010. The family asks that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Donna's name to Annandale Village, 3500 Annandale Lane, Suwannee, Georgia 30024. ALLEN, DOUGLAS EDWARD Fort McCoy - Douglas Edward Allen, 89, Fort McCoy. Douglas E., "Doug" Allen went home to be with the Lord January 10, 2010 in Tampa Florida. Born to Ernest and Mary Allen in Cincinnati, he came to Florida in 1924 where the family engaged in construction and farming. He graduated from Pompano Beach High school in 1941 where he played football and basketball, and was elected Class President his senior year. He was also a member of the first Boys State delegation from Pompano. At the outset of WWII he enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served as an aviation machinist in Iowa and California before serving on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Copahoe as chief machinist. Following the war he returned to Pompano and once again began to farm and delve into construction as a general contractor. He was also instrumental in founding Pompano's first V.F.W. Post and was its original commander. In the 1950's he embarked on a trail of civic involvement that he would follow most of his life, first, as Deacon at First Baptist Church of Pompano Beach, and later in city government that which eventually led him to serve as city commissioner and Vice Mayor in 1963-64. He worked vigorously on the planning and construction of Pompano's sewer system and spearheaded the design of the city's first dedicated emergency response / rescue vehicle for the fire department, years ahead of its time. He also took part in planting North Pompano Baptist Church. After leaving south Florida in 1972, he settled into Hog Valley to retire and build the homestead he would occupy until 2006. Not one to remain idle, while there he attended Florida State Fire College and worked as an EMT for Munroe Regional Medical Center for ten years. He also supervised construction of Hog Valley Volunteer Fire Department and served as its chief until 1992. His remaining years were spent doing the things he loved best: gardening and watching his family grow. He is preceded in death by his bride of 50 years, Sibyl Bush of Ft. Lauderdale, and is survived by his brother, Paul Allen of Cayce SC, two sons: Michael Allen of Plantation, FL and David Allen of Ft. McCoy. His legacy includes eight grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. ALLEN, DOUGLAS EDWARD Fort McCoy - Douglas Edward Allen, 89, Fort McCoy. Douglas E., "Doug" Allen went home to be with the Lord January 10, 2010 in Tampa Florida. Born to Ernest and Mary Allen in Cincinnati, he came to Florida in 1924 where the family engaged in construction and farming. He graduated from Pompano Beach High school in 1941 where he played football and basketball, and was elected Class President his senior year. He was also a member of the first Boys State delegation from Pompano. At the outset of WWII he enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served as an aviation machinist in Iowa and California before serving on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Copahee as chief machinist. Following the war he returned to Pompano and once again began to farm and delve into construction as a general contractor. He was also instrumental in founding Pompano's first V.F.W. Post and was its original commander. In the 1950's he embarked on a trail of civic involvement that he would follow most of his life, first, as Deacon at First Baptist Church of Pompano Beach, and later in city government that which eventually led him to serve as city commissioner and Vice Mayor in 1963-64. He worked vigorously on the planning and construction of Pompano's sewer system and spearheaded the design of the city's first dedicated emergency response / rescue vehicle for the fire department, years ahead of its time. He also took part in planting North Pompano Baptist Church. After leaving south Florida in 1972, he settled into Hog Valley to retire and build the homestead he would occupy until 2006. Not one to remain idle, while there he attended Florida State Fire

College and worked as an EMT for Munroe Regional Medical Center for ten years. He also supervised construction of Hog Valley Volunteer Fire Department and served as its chief until 1992. His remaining years were spent doing the things he loved best: gardening and watching his family grow. He is preceded in death by his bride of 50 years, Sibyl Bush of Ft. ISICOFF, RHODA Rhoda Isicoff of Ocala and Miami, passed away on January 22, 2010, after an amazing and unwavering battle with cancer. She was 75 years young. Rhoda was born in Cranford, New Jersey on June 27, 1934, and grew up in Newark, where she met and married Irving Isicoff. They moved to Miami in 1955 and raised three children in North Miami Beach. Rhoda was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend to many. She was a shining example of selfless concern for others and had unparalleled wisdom, compassion and patience. In 2001, Rhoda and Irving completed the construction of their dream house in Ocala, which they designed and built together. This beautiful home in the heart of horse country became the centerpiece for many great times and memories. Their home was always open to family and friends. Above and beyond all else, family meant more to Rhoda than anything on earth and she was someone anyone could talk to and confide in about anything. She was most proud of her three children and their families and was always there to lend a helping hand, in good times and in bad. Somehow, she always knew the right things to say and always made you feel better, no matter the problem. She will be sorely missed by her family and friends and her loss creates a void that can never be filled. Rhoda leaves behind her husband of 56 years, Irving, her three children Steven (Laurel), Eric (Tammy) and Susan (Charles), as well as seven grandchildren, Alison, Daniel, Jamie, Jordan, Jennifer, Zach and Lindsey, her sister Joan (Charles Lang) and many other family members and friends. She is predeceased by her sisters Helen and Dorothy, her brother Harvey and her grandson Joseph. Funeral services will be held on Monday, January 25, 2010 at 11:00 am, at Riverside Gordon Memorial Chapel, 5900 SW 77th Ave., Miami, FL 33143, with burial to follow at Mt. Nebo Kendall Memorial Gardens. The family encourages donations to the Joseph Samuel Isicoff Memorial Fund c/o Isicoff, Ragatz & Koenigsberg, 1200 Brickell Ave., Suite 1900, Miami, Florida 33131 or the University of Miami Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. ISICOFF, RHODA Rhoda Isicoff of Ocala and Miami, passed away on January 22, 2010, after an amazing and unwavering battle with cancer. She was 75 years young. Rhoda was born in

Cranford, New Jersey on June 27, 1934, and grew up in Newark, where she met and married Irving Isicoff. They moved to Miami in 1955 and raised three children in North Miami Beach. Rhoda was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend to many. She was a shining example of selfless concern for others and had unparalleled wisdom, compassion and patience. In 2001, Rhoda and Irving completed the construction of their dream house in Ocala, which they designed and built together. This beautiful home in the heart of horse country became the centerpiece for many great times and memories. Their home was always open to family and friends. Above and beyond all else, family meant more to Rhoda than anything on earth and she was someone anyone could talk to and confide in about anything. She was most proud of her three children and their families and was always there to lend a helping hand, in good times and in bad. Somehow, she always knew the right things to say and always made you feel better, no matter the problem. She will be sorely missed by her family and friends and her loss creates a void that can never be filled. Rhoda leaves behind her husband of 56 years, Irving, her three children Steven (Laurel), Eric (Tammy) and Susan (Charles), as well as seven grandchildren, Alison, Daniel, Jamie, Jordan, Jennifer, Zach and Lindsey, her sister Joan (Charles Lang) and many other family members and friends. She is predeceased by her sisters Helen and Dorothy, her brother Harvey and her grandson Joseph. Funeral services will be held on Monday, January 25, 2010 at 11:00 am, at Riverside Gordon Memorial Chapel, 5900 SW 77th Ave., Miami, FL 33143, with burial to follow at Mt. Nebo Kendall Memorial Gardens. The family encourages donations to the Joseph Samuel Isicoff Memorial Fund c/o Isicoff, Ragatz & Koenigsberg, 1200 Brickell Ave., Suite 1900, Miami, Florida 33131 or the University of Miami Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. SELBY, SHEILA CONNOR, 75 Buckingham Township, Sheila Connor Selby, 75, of Buckingham Township died Monday, January 25, 2010, due to complications from heart surgery. Born to Francis E. Connor and Nan P. Gibson June 8, 1934, in Philadelphia, Pa., Sheila was a life-long resident of Bucks County. She was raised in Hatboro, Pa., and graduated from Hatboro High School. She attended The Pennsylvania School of Horticulture for Women, which is now part of Temple University. From the beginning, Sheila had a passion for nature. She loved trees and plants, animals and rocks, and throughout her life preferred to be outside, playing sports or "puttering in the dirt," over anything else. In 1953, Sheila started Bountiful Acres, a produce stand, in Holicong, Pa., with her first husband, the late Earl Hart Jamison. Sheila and Earl created Peddler's Village in 1962 in Lahaska, Pa., and Sheila took a hand in every part of the business, from managing the restaurant to putting shingles on roofs, planting flower beds, and laying brick walkways. In the mid 1970s, Sheila launched a new business. She installed four tennis courts at Fox Briar Farm in Lahaska and opened the Dennis Van Der Meer Tennis Academy, giving lessons to promising players from the area. In 1977, she married the late John R. Selby, who introduced her to golf, which quickly became her favorite sport. Sheila was a member of Huntingdon Valley Country Club in Pa. and Fiddlesticks Country Club in Ft. Myers, Fla. She was a formidable competitor on the golf course and won numerous tournaments, including six Pennsylvania State amateur titles. In 1987, she won the Huntingdon Valley Club Championships in both tennis and golf. Most importantly, Sheila was a woman of great faith. She loved Jesus and sharing His Gospel message, and for the last 25 five years taught Bible studies in her home and at church. Sheila felt she was extraordinarily blessed throughout her life and always shared generously with her family and friends. She shared her time generously, too-planning and planting gardens, cleaning and painting, and even shoveling pastures. In recent years, the Answers In Genesis/Creation Museum in Petersburg, Ky., became one of her great passions. Each year she made several trips to Kentucky to help lay out and plant the museum's expansive gardens. She personally planted thousands of flowers in the gardens, along the walking trails and near her beloved koi pond. Nearly a million visitors to the Museum have been blessed by her handy work and donations. Sheila will be remembered for her love for Jesus, for her almost inexhaustible spunkiness, and for her complete commitment to whatever she did. Sheila is survived by her five children and their spouses-Sherri Jamison of Ocala, Fla.; Kim Ibarra of Santee, Calif.; Donna Cave and Jeff of Buckingham, Pa.; Kelly Rood and Tom of Buckingham, Pa.; Brad Jamison and Terri of Lake George, N.Y., as well as her eleven grandchildren: Kellie, Megan, Brianna, Jared, Hannah, Peter, Matthew, Kendall, Mark, Bridgett, and Gwen. She is also survived by her sister, Eileen Roedel and Fred, and her nephew and two nieces. Sheila is also survived by her six step-children and their spouses: John Selby and Joyce of Doylestown, Pa.; Sara Flores and James of Carmel, Ind.; Rodney Selby and Marie of Shanghai, PRC; Beth Selby Bass and Robert of Westport, Conn.; Robert Selby and Renee of Wycombe, Pa.; Peter Selby and Sarah of Lake Hopatcong, N.J. Also surviving are her fourteen step-grandchildren: John, James, Margaret, Courtney, Eleanor, Ian, Megan, Nicholas, Breukelen, Eliot, Robert, Alison, Aidan, Dylan, and step-great grandson Griffin. Friends and relatives are invited to celebrate Sheila's life at a 1:00 p.m. memorial service on Monday, February 1, 2010, at Calvary Chapel of Philadelphia, 13500 Philmont Avenue, Philadelphia. A reception will follow immediately at Calvary Chapel. Please visit www.ccphilly.org for directions. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Sheila's memory may be made to Answers in Genesis, P.O. Box 510, Hebron, KY 41048-0510. Published in Ocala Star- Banner from January 29 to January 30, 2010

SHAAR, RUBY "HINGE" 90 Ocala - Ruby "Hinge" Shaar, age 90, of Ocala, FL passed away on Monday, January 25, 2010. She was born in Holmes County, FL on May 24, 1919. She moved to the Ocala area from Tampa approx. 35 years ago. Mrs. Shaar worked as a Physician's Assistant in the Tampa area. When she was younger before she was married she worked on a military base in Avon Park as a Chauffer for officers. She was of the Baptist Faith. SELBY, SHEILA CONNOR, 75 Buckingham Township, Sheila Connor Selby, 75, of Buckingham Township died Monday, January 25, 2010, due to complications from heart surgery. Born to Francis E. Connor and Nan P. Gibson June 8, 1934, in Philadelphia, Pa., Sheila was a life-long resident of Bucks County. She was raised in Hatboro, Pa., and graduated from Hatboro High School. She attended The Pennsylvania School of Horticulture for Women, which is now part of Temple University. From the beginning, Sheila had a passion for nature. She loved trees and plants, animals and rocks, and throughout her life preferred to be outside, playing sports or "puttering in the dirt," over anything else. In 1953, Sheila started Bountiful Acres, a produce stand, in Holicong, Pa., with her first husband, the late Earl Hart Jamison. Sheila and Earl created Peddler's Village in 1962 in Lahaska, Pa., and Sheila took a hand in every part of the business, from managing the restaurant to putting shingles on roofs, planting flower beds, and laying brick walkways. In the mid 1970s, Sheila launched a new business. She installed four tennis courts at Fox Briar Farm in Lahaska and opened the Dennis Van Der Meer Tennis Academy, giving lessons to promising players from the area. In 1977, she married the late John R. Selby, who introduced her to golf, which quickly became her favorite sport. Sheila was a member of Huntingdon Valley Country Club in Pa. and Fiddlesticks Country Club in Ft. Myers, Fla. She was a formidable competitor on the golf course and won numerous tournaments, including six Pennsylvania State amateur titles. In 1987, she won the Huntingdon Valley Club Championships in both tennis and golf. Most importantly, Sheila was a woman of great faith. She loved Jesus and sharing His Gospel message, and for the last 25 five years taught Bible studies in her home and at church. Sheila felt she was extraordinarily blessed throughout her life and always shared generously with her family and friends. She shared her time generously, too-planning and planting gardens, cleaning and painting, and even shoveling pastures. In recent years, the Answers In Genesis/Creation Museum in Petersburg, Ky., became one of her great passions. Each year she made several trips to Kentucky to help lay out and plant the museum's expansive gardens. She personally planted thousands of flowers in the gardens, along the walking trails and near her beloved koi pond. Nearly a million visitors to the Museum have been blessed by her handy work and donations. Sheila will be remembered for her love for Jesus, for her almost inexhaustible spunkiness, and for her complete commitment to whatever she did.

Sheila is survived by her five children and their spouses-Sherri Jamison of Ocala, Fla.; Kim Ibarra of Santee, Calif.; Donna Cave and Jeff of Buckingham, Pa.; Kelly Rood and Tom of Buckingham, Pa.; Brad Jamison and Terri of Lake George, N.Y., as well as her eleven grandchildren: Kellie, Megan, Brianna, Jared, Hannah, Peter, Matthew, Kendall, Mark, Bridgett, and Gwen. She is also survived by her sister, Eileen Roedel and Fred, and her nephew and two nieces. Sheila is also survived by her six step-children and their spouses: John Selby and Joyce of Doylestown, Pa.; Sara Flores and James of Carmel, Ind.; Rodney Selby and Marie of Shanghai, PRC; Beth Selby Bass and Robert of Westport, Conn.; Robert Selby and Renee of Wycombe, Pa.; Peter Selby and Sarah of Lake Hopatcong, N.J. Also surviving are her fourteen step-grandchildren: John, James, Margaret, Courtney, Eleanor, Ian, Megan, Nicholas, Breukelen, Eliot, Robert, Alison, Aidan, Dylan, and step-great grandson Griffin. Friends and relatives are invited to celebrate Sheila's life at a 1:00 p.m. memorial service on Monday, February 1, 2010, at Calvary Chapel of Philadelphia, 13500 Philmont Avenue, Philadelphia. A reception will follow immediately at Calvary Chapel. Please visit www.ccphilly.org for directions. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Sheila's memory may be made to Answers in Genesis, P.O. Box 510, Hebron, KY 41048-0510. Published in Ocala Star- Banner from January 29 to January 30, 2010

WILLIS, PEGGY FAYE HADDEN Owensboro - Peggy Faye Hadden Willis, 75, of Owensboro, passed away Thursday, January 28, 2010 at the Owensboro Medical Health System. Peggy was born in Elkton, KY on May 15, 1934, to the late Roy and Annie May Hadden. She dedicated her life to serving the Lord through teaching at Oakland Christian School in Auburn Hills, MI from 1969-1993. After retiring and moving to Florida, Peggy continued to serve others by ministering and providing hospitality to bereaving families as a member at Central Baptist Church in Ocala FL for more than 10 years. The Bible states that a Godly mother's children will arise up and call her blessed and that a teacher should train and nurture a child to develop skills and discover his/her strengths; Peggy exemplified these characteristics. As a mother and teacher Peggy provided an environment of acceptance, affection, and unconditional love. She accepted the Lord at the age of 17 and was a lifelong Baptist and an active member of Cornerstone Baptist Church in Owensboro. She will always be remembered as being a strong Christian motherly influence to her children, grandchildren, great grandchild, and to those she taught throughout the years. Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, Suzie and Larry Homer of Owensboro; a son and daughter-in-law, Jeff and Mary Beth Willis, of four grandchildren, Andy Homer, Nate Homer, Clay Willis, and Jenny Beth Willis and one great granddaughter, Maggie Homer. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Jane Hadden, Dene Wells, and by her husband William "Bill" Willis. Services are Monday 10:00 AM February 1, 2010 at Glenn Funeral Home and Crematory with Rev. Tim Campbell officiating followed by burial at Owensboro Memorial Gardens next to her husband Bill. Visitation will be Sunday from 1-4 P.M. and on Monday after 9 AM at the funeral home. Expressions of sympathy may take the form of donations to the Children's Ministry at First Baptist Church of Owensboro, KY 42302. Published in Ocala Star-Banner from January 31 to February 1, 2010.

WILLIS, PEGGY FAYEHADDEN 75

Owensboro - Peggy Faye Hadden Willis, 75, of Owensboro, passed away Thursday, January 28, 2010 at the Owensboro Medical Health System. Peggy was born in Elkton, KY on May 15, 1934, to the late Roy and Annie May Hadden. She dedicated her life to serving the Lord through teaching at Oakland Christian School in Auburn Hills, MI from 1969-1993. After retiring and moving to Florida, Peggy continued to serve others by ministering and providing hospitality to bereaving families as a member at Central Baptist Church in Ocala FL for more than 10 years. The Bible states that a Godly mother's children will arise and call her blessed and that a teacher should train and nurture a child to develop skills and discover his/her strengths; Peggy exemplified these characteristics. As a mother and teacher Peggy provided an environment of acceptance, affection, and unconditional love. She accepted the Lord at the age of 17 and was a lifelong Baptist and an active member of Cornerstone Baptist Church in Owensboro. She will always be remembered as being a strong Christian motherly influence to her children, grandchildren, great grandchild, and to those she taught throughout the years. Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, Suzie and Larry Homer of Owensboro; a son and daughter-in-law, Jeff and Mary Beth Willis, of four grandchildren, Andy Homer, Nate Homer, Clay Willis, and Jenny Beth Willis and one great granddaughter, Maggie Homer. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Jane Hadden, Dene Wells, and by her husband William "Bill" Willis. Services are Monday 10:00 AM February 1, 2010 at Glenn Funeral Home and Crematory with Rev. Tim Campbell officiating followed by burial at Owensboro Memorial Gardens next to her husband Bill. Visitation will be Sunday from 1-4 P.M. and on Monday after 9 AM at the funeral home. Expressions of sympathy may take the form of donations to the Children's Ministry at First Baptist Church of Owensboro, KY 42302. Published in Ocala Star-Banner from January 31 to February 1, 2010

CLEMMONS, HARMON BENJAMIN, 84

El Paso, TX - Harmon Benjamin "Ben" Clemmons, 84, a retired United States Postal Inspector and devoted husband, father and grandfather, passed away on February 1, 2010, after a long battle with heart disease. Ben was born in Ocala, Florida on March 31, 1925, to Harmon and Grace Clemmons. Upon graduation from high school at Citra, Florida, he attended The University of Florida in Gainesville. After the outbreak of WW II, Ben enlisted in the Army Air Corps where he attained the rank of Flight Officer/Lieutenant. Upon completing his service in 1945, he transferred to Emory at Oxford in Oxford, Georgia, and completed his education at Emory University in Atlanta, where he met his future wife of 59 years, Jean. After graduation, Ben worked as a farmer and teacher/coach in Reddick, Florida. In 1950, Ben and Jean married and settled down in Citra, where he worked as a Rural Carrier for the United States Postal Service. After 12 years in Citra, Ben joined the U.S. Postal Inspection Service and moved the family to El Paso, where he retired in 1982. After retirement, Ben became a licensed agent with the William B. White Insurance Agency in El Paso. In addition, he was a freelance insurance investigator. Ben's life revolved around his devotion to God, his church and his family. He and his family attended St. Luke United Methodist Church when they arrived in El Paso in 1962 and never left. Over the years, he served the church in many capacities, including Lay Leader, Chairman of the Staff/Parish Relations Committee and unofficial Photographer, and was active in the United Methodist Men and the "Geezers Breakfast Club". He also taught Sunday School and Confirmation classes for many years, mentoring many young adults. On several occasions, in the absence of the regular minister, he even led the Sunday services. In addition, he was a Mason in the Island Grove, Florida Lodge for over 50 years. His guiding principle in life was that he was somebody special but no better than the next man, and he encouraged the same in his children. Ben is survived by his wife, Jean, his son, Harmon B. "Chip" Jr. (Terri) of Dexter, NM, his daughter, Debbie Romero of Bellevue, WA, grandchildren Jenny and Panch, step-grandchildren Jessica, Josh and Christal, his brothers, Elton and H. L. (Mary Fred), as well as several nieces and nephews. A memorial service celebrating Ben's life will be held on Saturday, February 13, 2010, at 11:00 a.m. at Citra United Methodist Church. Visitation will be at 10:00 a.m., just before the service. A burial service will be held afterwards at the Citra Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made either to the Citra United Methodist Church Building Fund (P. O. Box 178, Citra, FL 32113) or to the Citra Historical Society (P. O. CLEMMONS, HARMON BENJAMIN, 84

El Paso, TX - Harmon Benjamin "Ben" Clemmons, 84, a retired United States Postal Inspector and devoted husband, father and grandfather, passed away on February 1, 2010, after a long battle with heart disease. Ben was born in Ocala, Florida on March 31, 1925, to Harmon and Grace Clemmons. Upon graduation from high school at Citra, Florida, he attended The University of Florida in Gainesville. After the outbreak of WW II, Ben enlisted in the Army Air Corps where he attained the rank of Flight Officer/Lieutenant. Upon completing his service in 1945, he transferred to Emory at Oxford in Oxford, Georgia, and completed his education at Emory University in Atlanta, where he met his future wife of 59 years, Jean. After graduation, Ben worked as a farmer and teacher/coach in Reddick, Florida. In 1950, Ben and Jean married and settled down in Citra, where he worked as a Rural Carrier for the United States Postal Service. After 12 years in Citra, Ben joined the U.S. Postal Inspection Service and moved the family to El Paso, where he retired in 1982. After retirement, Ben became a licensed agent with the William B. White Insurance Agency in El Paso. In addition, he was a freelance insurance investigator. Ben's life revolved around his devotion to God, his church and his family. He and his family attended St. Luke United Methodist Church when they arrived in El Paso in 1962 and never left. Over the years, he served the church in many capacities, including Lay Leader,

Chairman of the Staff/Parish Relations Committee and unofficial Photographer, and was active in the United Methodist Men and the "Geezers Breakfast Club". He also taught Sunday School and Confirmation classes for many years, mentoring many young adults. On several occasions, in the absence of the regular minister, he even led the Sunday services. In addition, he was a Mason in the Island Grove, Florida Lodge for over 50 years. His guiding principle in life was that he was somebody special but no better than the next man, and he encouraged the same in his children. Ben is survived by his wife, Jean, his son, Harmon B. "Chip" Jr. (Terri) of Dexter, NM, his daughter, Debbie Romero of Bellevue, WA, grandchildren Jenny and Panch, step-grandchildren Jessica, Josh and Christal, his brothers, Elton and H. L. MORRISON, JOHN ANGUS

John Angus Morrison passed away at the age of 80 on the morning of February 11th, 2010 at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Gainesville, Fl. A lifelong Florida resident, who lived most of his life in Dunnellon Fl, John was known to friends and family as "Mr. Johnny". John operated his own successful timber harvest company in the Dunnellon area for many years. He was also employed for over forty years by the Goethe Lumber Company of Dunnellon Fl as a timberlands manager. John was a patriot who bravely served his country during the Korean War as a combat soldier in the US Marine Corps. John has been formally retired for over 10 years. He has enjoyed his free time since retirement gardening and helping raise his grandchildren. Mr. Johnny was a skillful and accomplished outdoorsman that enjoyed hunting, fishing, and just being in the wilds of Florida. There were few things he enjoyed more than listening to his hounds howling in pursuit of an elusive buck in the Florida hammocks and pine flat woods, or hearing an old Osceola spring gobbler's response reverberate across a cypress swamp in reply to his call. Most of all Mr. Johnny enjoyed his family and his many friends that visited him regularly at his "empire". He resided on several acres of rural property just outside of Dunnellon in Citrus County. Mr. Johnny's front door was always open. Nearly endless conversation awaited anyone who entered his home. He will be truly missed by those who survive him, including his wife Ruby, sister Alma Dyjack of Panama City Fl, sister Sue Richardson of Crystal River, son John W. Morrision of Dunnellon, daughter Angie Shashy of Ocala, daughter Karen Holt of Dunnellon, stepson Jesse Chesterfield of Dunnellon, step-grandchildren Brianna and Tyler Chesterfield of Dunnellon, granddaughter Colby Morrison and great granddaughter Kylie Morrison of Ocala, grandson Kyle Morrison of Lake Weir, grandson Charles Holt of Dunnellon, granddaughter Kayla Holt of Citrus Springs, and grandsons Benjamin and Daniel Shashy of Ocala. PAVILS, ALBERT, 85

Ocala - WWII Navy Veteran Albert Pavils passed away February 10, 2010 at Munroe Regional Medical Center. He was born in Chicago and moved to Ocala in 1990. During the war he served on the USS Arkansas. He told incredible stories about his Navy experiences that included D-Day off Omaha Beach and, while on watch, he saw the first flag raised on Iwo Jima. He had many interests but loved sports. Al played baseball in high school and, after the war he played semiprofessional baseball, as a pitcher, with the Rhinelander Brewery team, the Shorty's. He loved to swim, hunt, play golf and he bowled up until December. His kind, gentle, and loving presence will be terribly missed by his nieces Cathy Bodnar and Carol Palac, nephews John, Charles and Michael Bitinas, sisters in law Joyce and Victoria Bitinas, cousins Donald and Patricia Buksnes, best friend since childhood, Gene Martishus, and many good friends. He was preceded in death in 2006 by the love of his life, his wife of 56 years, Helen Pavils. We find comfort in knowing they're together once again. Please take a moment to remember Al, and, if you're able, do something kind in honor of his memory. Condolences may be posted to hiers-baxley.com. He was also employed for over forty years by the Goethe Lumber Company of Dunnellon Fl as a timberlands manager. John was a patriot who bravely served his country during the Korean War as a combat soldier in the US Marine Corps. John has been formally retired for over 10 years. He has enjoyed his free time since retirement gardening and helping raise his grandchildren. Mr. Johnny was a skillful and accomplished outdoorsman that enjoyed hunting, fishing, and just being in the wilds of Florida. There were few things he enjoyed more than listening to his hounds howling in pursuit of an elusive buck in the Florida hammocks and pine flat woods, or hearing an old Osceola spring gobbler's response reverberate across a cypress swamp in reply to his call. Most of all Mr. Johnny enjoyed his family and his many friends that visited him regularly at his "empire". He resided on several acres of rural property just outside of Dunnellon in Citrus County. Mr. Johnny's front door was always open. Nearly endless conversation awaited anyone who entered his home. He will be truly missed by those who survive him, including his wife Ruby, sister Alma Dyjack of Panama City Fl, sister Sue Richardson of Crystal River, son John W. Morrison of Dunnellon, daughter Angie Shashy of Ocala, daughter Karen Holt of Dunnellon, stepson Jesse Chesterfield of Dunnellon, step-grandchildren Brianna and Tyler Chesterfield of Dunnellon, granddaughter Colby Morrison and great granddaughter Kylie Morrison of Ocala, grandson Kyle Morrison of Lake Weir, grandson Charles Holt of Dunnellon, granddaughter Kayla Holt of Citrus Springs, and grandsons Benjamin and Daniel Shashy of Ocala. CLEMONS, FRANCES VANCE 84

Ocala - Frances Vance Clemons, 84, passed away on Saturday, February 20, 2010 in Cary, North Carolina. Mrs. Clemons was born in Plumtree, NC, in 1925, and was a proud graduate of UNC Chapel Hill. She married her husband, Reese, in 1951 and they lived in several southern towns until they settled in Ocala in 1966. She moved to Ocala to become Executive Director for United Way and held that position until 1977. Fran loved Ocala and embraced its history and culture. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church for over 40 years. She served on the Board of Directors for Heart of Florida Girl Scouts for five years, in addition to being a Girl Scout Troop Leader for 10 years. She was an accomplished storyteller and a member of the Ocali Storytelling Guild. She was a member Historic Ocala Preservation Society (HOPS), Friends of the Public Library, the Marion County Museum of History, Ocala Women's Club and the PEO Sisterhood. Her passion above all was the Ocala Civic Theatre where she started as a volunteer in the late 1960s. She served a total of thirteen years on the Board of Directors, including a year as President and a term as Treasurer. She was the driving force behind organizing ACT IV, a group that provides financial and volunteer support to the theatre. She was the organizing President in 1988 and continued her association with the group until 2008. A woman of many talents, Fran was an artist whose paintings vividly depict her home mountains in Plumtree, NC. She had an "ear" for music which she used to play both the piano and hammered dulcimer beautifully. Following the "music in my head" she gave impromptu concerts at any opportunity. One of her proudest accomplishments was the publication in 2008 of her book "View From My Porch", an historical account of her beloved home of Plumtree, NC. Survivors include her daughters Vanessa (DuWayne) Hammill of Lakeland, FL, Risa (Howard) Larsen of Cary, NC, and Kay (Mike) Duncan of Colorado Springs, CO, and two grandchildren, Peri and Steve Duncan. HARRIS, DOROTHY LEE THOMPSON., 89

Dorothy Lee Thompson Harris, 89, a retired registered nurse, was called to eternal rest by the Lord on March 12, 2010, after an extended illness, at Spring Hills Mount Vernon Assisted Living, Alexandria, Virginia. Mrs. Harris was born February 13, 1921, in Palmetto, Florida, the fifth of six children born to John Albert and Ethel Louise Thompson. She grew up in Reddick, Florida and, following three years at Fessenden Academy in Martin, she graduated from Howard Academy in Ocala in 1941. Mrs. Harris completed nursing school at Brewster Hospital in Jacksonville in 1944. She continued her nursing training at Freedman's Hospital, Washington, D.C., and in 1968 she received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from North Carolina College (now North Carolina Central University) in Durham. Her professional nursing career included positions at Brewster Hospital, Jackson Memorial Hospital in South Miami, the Veterans Administration Hospital in Tuskegee, Alabama, and Munroe Memorial Hospital in Ocala. She retired from the Marion County Public Health Department on April 30, 1985 with 23 years of service as a staff nurse and as a nursing supervisor for maternity programs. The Marion County Board of County Commissioners proclaimed that day "Dorothy Harris Day." Mrs. Harris' Christian journey began at an early age, when she joined Mount Olive Baptist Church in Reddick which later became the United Baptist Church. She was an active member, serving on the Women's Usher Board, Finance Committee, and numerous auxiliaries. Mrs. Harris was also actively involved in her community. Affectionately known as "Nurse Harris," she contributed to the health and welfare of Marion County's residents and devoted much attention to mothers and school children. She was especially involved in the areas of maternity care and sickle cell anemia, conducting workshops and presenting lectures throughout the county. She was a member of Les Coeur Social Club, Club Charmant, and the Senior Citizens Club of North Marion County. In 2004, Mrs. Harris moved to Alexandria to be near her daughter and shortly thereafter joined the Alfred Street Baptist Church. An organizer by nature, she regularly invited Rev. Gunn to conduct Bible Study at Spring Hills Mount Vernon. Family and friends fondly remember her dedication, compassion, and devotion to caring for her father, who resided with her for 18 years once blindness prevented him from living alone. She could boast of attending the births of all her grand nieces and grand nephews, until her health declined. In 1977, God blessed her with one grandson, Jason, whom she adored and whose birthday celebrations she rarely missed. She was united in marriage to Robert Harris, who preceded her in death. Those left to share memories of her are her daughter, Dr. Gwendolyn Harris (Ralph) Everett of Alexandria, Virginia; a grandson, Jason Gordon (Heidi) Everett of Fairfax, Virginia; one great-grandson, Alan Ralph Everett of Fairfax, Virginia; two sisters, Idella R. Parker and Eliza T. Bickers of Pompano Beach, Florida; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Sadie J. Thompson; five nieces, Joyce Prime, Cynthia G. (John) Bowens, Iatrice Edwards, Marcia Nelson, Margaret Ann Rushing, and a host of grand nieces, grand nephews, cousins, and friends. #### HARRIS, DOROTHY LEE THOMPSON., 89

Dorothy Lee Thompson Harris, 89, a retired registered nurse, was called to eternal rest by the Lord on March 12, 2010, after an extended illness, at Spring Hills Mount Vernon Assisted Living, Alexandria, Virginia. Mrs. Harris was born February 13, 1921, in Palmetto, Florida, the fifth of six children born to John Albert and Ethel Louise Thompson. She grew up in Reddick, Florida and, following three years at Fessenden Academy in Martin, she graduated from Howard Academy in Ocala in 1941. Mrs. Harris completed nursing school at Brewster Hospital in Jacksonville in 1944. She continued her nursing training at Freedman's Hospital, Washington, D.C., and in 1968 she received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from North Carolina College (now North Carolina Central University) in Durham. Her professional nursing career included positions at Brewster Hospital, Jackson Memorial Hospital in South Miami, the Veterans Administration Hospital in Tuskegee, Alabama, and Munroe Memorial Hospital in Ocala. She retired from the Marion County Public Health Department on April 30, 1985 with 23 years of service as a staff nurse and as a nursing supervisor for maternity programs. The Marion County Board of County Commissioners proclaimed that day "Dorothy Harris Day." Mrs. Harris' Christian journey began at an early age, when she joined Mount Olive Baptist Church in Reddick which later became the United Baptist Church. She was an active member, serving on the Women's Usher Board, Finance Committee, and numerous auxiliaries. Mrs. Harris was also actively involved in her community. Affectionately known as "Nurse Harris," she contributed to the health and welfare of Marion County's residents and devoted much attention to mothers and school children. She was especially involved in the areas of maternity care and sickle cell anemia, conducting workshops and presenting lectures throughout the county. She was a member of Les Coeur Social Club, Club Charmant, and the Senior Citizens Club of North Marion County. In 2004, Mrs. Harris moved to Alexandria to be near her daughter and shortly thereafter joined the Alfred Street Baptist Church. An organizer by nature, she regularly invited Rev. Gunn to conduct Bible Study at Spring Hills Mount Vernon. Family and friends fondly remember her dedication, compassion, and devotion to caring for her father, who resided with her for 18 years once blindness prevented him from living alone. She could boast of attending the births of all her grand nieces and grand nephews, until her health declined. In 1977, God blessed her with one grandson, Jason, whom she adored and whose birthday celebrations she rarely missed. She was united in marriage to Robert Harris, who preceded her in death. Those left to share memories of her are her daughter, Dr. Gwendolyn Harris (Ralph) Everett of Alexandria, Virginia; a grandson, Jason Gordon (Heidi) Everett of Fairfax, Virginia; one great-grandson, Alan Ralph Everett of Fairfax, Virginia; two sisters, Idella R. Parker and Eliza T. Bickers of Pompano Beach, Florida; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Sadie J. Thompson; five nieces, Joyce Prime, Cynthia G. (John) Bowns, Iatrice Edwards, Marcia Nelson, Margaret Ann Rushing, and a host of grand nieces, grand nephews, cousins, and friends. Visitation will be held on Wednesday, March 17 from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, March 18 from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon. The family will receive friends on Thursday, from 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. at the United Missionary Baptist Church, 15460 NW Avenue Road, Reddick, FL. Rev. Herman J. Boone, Sr. Officiating. He was born April 21, 1917, in Sneads, Florida, to the late Edward and Sallie Lanier McDaniel. He graduated from Sneads High School, and attended a year and a half of college courses at the University of Florida before joining the military. E.B. served in the U.S. Navy during World War II, from 1940 to 1947, during which time he survived the sinking of two naval vessels. On March 7, 1946, he was married to Dorothy Elizabeth Mansfield in New Haven, CT. After the War, E.B. entered the banking industry, working from cashier up to bank president of banks in Orange Park and Belle Glade. Always focused on customer service, he took personal satisfaction in helping young people get started in life through loans for their first homes. Known for his integrity, honesty, and humility, he went out of his way to serve others professionally and in the community. E.B. was a proud fifty year member of the Freemasons, and enjoyed the fraternal bonds that organization provided. He was also a Presbyterian, and served as an elder of his church in Belle Glade. A lifelong resident of Florida, he enjoyed golfing and daily walks on the beach after he retired to New Smyrna Beach. E.B. and his wife also frequently visited the Blue Ridge Mountains, where they enjoyed hiking and bird watching. He was an avid baseball fan for most of his life, and was always excited for a game of dominos with his grandchildren. A caring and supportive husband, and loving father to his two daughters, E.B. was cherished by both family members and friends. He is survived by his daughters, Patricia and Lynwood Bevis of Ocala, Florida, and Carol and Chris Headley of Washington, D.C.; five grandchildren, Julien, Lyn, and Anna Headley, and Kimberly and Douglas Bevis; and one sister, Omega Durden of Grand Ridge. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, three brothers, and three sisters. Funeral services for E.B. McDaniel will be held at 2:00 p.m., Central Time, Saturday, March 27, at El Bethel Assembly of God Church in Grand Ridge, Burial will follow at Dykes Cemetery, also in Grand Ridge. Relatives and friends are also welcome at the Lanier-Andler Funeral Home, 8261 Highway 90 East in Sneads, on Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. SERVICES CONDUCTED BY LANIER ANDLER FUNERAL HOME 8261 HWY.90 EAST SNEADS, FLORIDA 32460. ### HOLLY, EUGENE CASEY, 83

Daytona Beach - Eugene Casey Holly, 83. On Tuesday, March 30th, long time Flagler Beach resident and Florida native, Eugene "Gene" Casey Holly, passed away after a nearly two year struggle with the effects of several strokes. With a slight smile, Gene Holly slipped into sleep and peacefully eased from his body and entered into his immortal body of light and love. For almost two years his family and numerous friends had stood by his side as this final day gradually approached. For everyone around him, to see his abilities diminish, it was difficult. He never complained. He never asked for or accepted pity. Until that final day, he was always working to get well. He never stopped smiling, and making others smile. He loved his family, his friends, his Florida, and his Country, all his life, and never more so than his final days on earth with us. Gene Holly was 83 years old. He began life on December 18th, 1926 in Conner, Florida. His father was George Franklin Drew Holly, 1877 - 1960, and his mother was Emma Almeda Mason Holly, 1889 - 1973, Gene Holly is preceded in death by brother Clarence Ackney Holly, born March 4, 1907 and deceased July 25, 1987 sister Florence Irma Holly, born October 26, 1909, and deceased August 9, 1925, brother George Franklin Holly Jr., born September 14, 1913 and deceased April 6, 1980, sister Emma Almeda Holly Joyner, born June 29, 1915 and deceased July 12, 1999, brother Henry Woodrow Holly, born September 20, 1917 and deceased April 24, 1999, sister Georgia Holly; born February 20, 1920, and deceased February 25, 1920, sister Frances Anibel Holly, born September 19, 1921, and deceased July 21, 1922, brother Alfred Randolph Holly, born March 6, 1923, and deceased October 29, 2008 a sister still born October 11, 1925; and brother Lawrence Drew Holly, born May 26, 1930 and deceased June 23, 2003. Gene graduated from East Marion High School with the class of 1945, then followed his brothers into military service from 1945 to 1947, and from 1950 to 1952. When he returned to Florida he entered the University of Florida and in 1956 graduated with honors with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture. He remained a huge Gator fan all his Blue and Orange life, and his only prejudice was against the color combination of Garnet and Gold. Gene went to work in our nations capital at the United States Department of Agriculture, from 1956 until 1960, then with that wealth of experience, returned to his Florida and worked for 22 years, 1960 thru 1982, for the Florida State Board of Health. He loved the Ocala National Forest and had several remote spots that he liked to visit and just commune with nature, among those was Hughes Island and a remote spot along Doe Lake in the south end of the forest. He would often visit these areas, pull out his lawn chair and just sit and watch and listen. He was truly a nature lover. He was an avid deer hunter and spent some of his happiest times in the company of his friends at Iron Flats Hunting Club. Gene recently was presented an award for 50 years membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Flagler Beach, and direct descendant of Florida Pioneers William and Mary Holly, who helped found Ocklawaha Bridge Baptist Church. ### HOLLY, EUGENE CASEY, 83

Daytona Beach - Eugene Casey Holly, 83. On Tuesday, March 30th, long time Flagler Beach resident and Florida native, Eugene "Gene" Casey Holly, passed away after a nearly two year struggle with the effects of several strokes. With a slight smile, Gene Holly slipped into sleep and peacefully eased from his body and entered into his immortal body of light and love. For almost two years his family and numerous friends had stood by his side as this final day gradually approached. For everyone around him, to see his abilities diminish, it was difficult. He never complained. He never asked for or accepted pity. Until that final day, he was always working to get well. He never stopped smiling, and making others smile. He loved his family, his friends, his Florida, and his Country, all his life, and never more so than his final days on earth with us. Gene Holly was 83 years old. He began life on December 18th, 1926 in Conner, Florida. His father was George Franklin Drew Holly, 1877 - 1960, and his mother was Emma Almeda Mason Holly, 1889 - 1973, Gene Holly is preceded in death by brother Clarence Ackney Holly, born March 4, 1907 and deceased July 25, 1987 sister Florence Irma Holly, born October 26, 1909, and deceased August 9, 1925, brother George Franklin Holly Jr., born September 14, 1913 and deceased April 6, 1980, sister Emma Almeda Holly Joyner, born June 29, 1915 and deceased July 12, 1999, brother Henry Woodrow Holly, born September 20, 1917 and deceased April 24, 1999, sister Georgia Holly; born February 20, 1920, and deceased February 25, 1920, sister Frances Anibel Holly, born September 19, 1921, and deceased July 21, 1922, brother Alfred Randolph Holly, born March 6, 1923, and deceased October 29, 2008 a sister still born October 11, 1925; and brother Lawrence Drew Holly, born May 26, 1930 and deceased June 23, 2003. Gene graduated from East Marion High School with the class of 1945, then followed his brothers into military service from 1945 to 1947, and from 1950 to 1952. When he returned to Florida he entered the University of Florida and in 1956 graduated with honors with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture. He remained a huge Gator fan all his Blue and Orange life, and his only prejudice was against the color combination of Garnet and Gold. Gene went to work in our nations capital at the United States Department of Agriculture, from 1956 until 1960, then with that wealth of experience, returned to his Florida and worked for 22 years, 1960 thru 1982, for the Florida State Board of Health. He loved the Ocala National Forest and had several remote spots that he liked to visit and just commune with nature, among those was Hughes Island and a remote spot along Doe Lake in the south end of the forest. He would often visit these areas, pull out his lawn chair and just sit and watch and listen. He was truly a nature lover. He was an avid deer hunter and spent some of his happiest times in the company of his friends at Iron Flats Hunting Club. Gene recently was presented an award for 50 years membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Flagler Beach, and direct descendant of Florida Pioneers William and Mary Holly, who helped found Ocklawaha Bridge Baptist Church. He was a member of Sons of Confederate Veterans, First Family of Florida, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the National Rifle Association. He is survived by three children, Casey Eugene Leydon-Holly, 55, of St. Augustine, William Daniel Holly, 53, of Flagler Beach, and Carolyn Sue Holly, 37, of the Hammock, and seven grandchildren, Eugene Casey Leydon-Holly, 32, of Los Angeles, California, Samuel Brinson Leydon-Holly, 23, of Virginia Beach, Virginia, Peter Davis Leydon-Holly, 21, of St. Augustine; Carolyn Suezann Barnes, Andrea Jean Claspille, Joshua Holly, Thomas Hall, and three great-grandchildren, Kaytie Hall, Kylie Hall, Riley Holly. Visitation will be held Tuesday at Craig Flagler Palms Funeral Home, 511 Old Kings Road South, Flagler Beach, from 4:00 pm till 8:00 pm, with a funeral service at 7:00 pm. There will be the graveside service, Wednesday at 2:00 pm, at the Ocklawaha Bridge Baptist Church cemetery, in Marion County. On behalf of the entire immediate and extended Holly family, our deepest thanks to the warm and professional staff of Sandalwood Nursing Home, and everyone known and unknown who has ever shared a smile with our father, our grandfather, our uncle, our native son, our beloved Gene. HOLLY, EUGENE CASEY, 83

Daytona Beach - Eugene Casey Holly, 83. On Tuesday, March 30th, long time Flagler Beach resident and Florida native, Eugene "Gene" Casey Holly, passed away after a nearly two year struggle with the effects of several strokes. With a slight smile, Gene Holly slipped into sleep and peacefully eased from his body and entered into his immortal body of light and love. For almost two years his family and numerous friends had stood by his side as this final day gradually approached. For everyone around him, to see his abilities diminish, it was difficult. He never complained. He never asked for or accepted pity. Until that final day, he was always working to get well. He never stopped smiling, and making others smile. He loved his family, his friends, his Florida, and his Country, all his life, and never more so than his final days on earth with us.

Gene Holly was 83 years old. He began life on December 18th, 1926 in Conner, Florida. His father was George Franklin Drew Holly, 1877 - 1960, and his mother was Emma Almeda Mason Holly, 1889 - 1973, Gene Holly is preceded in death by brother Clarence Ackney Holly, born March 4, 1907 and deceased July 25, 1987 sister Florence Irma Holly, born October 26, 1909, and deceased August 9, 1925, brother George Franklin Holly Jr., born September 14, 1913 and deceased April 6, 1980, sister Emma Almeda Holly Joyner, born June 29, 1915 and deceased July 12, 1999, brother Henry Woodrow Holly, born September 20, 1917 and deceased April 24, 1999, sister Georgia Holly; born February 20, 1920, and deceased February 25, 1920, sister Frances Anibel Holly, born September 19, 1921, and deceased July 21, 1922, brother Alfred Randolph Holly, born March 6, 1923, and deceased October 29, 2008 a sister still born October 11, 1925; and brother Lawrence Drew Holly, born May 26, 1930 and deceased June 23, 2003.

Gene graduated from East Marion High School with the class of 1945, then followed his brothers into military service from 1945 to 1947, and from 1950 to 1952. When he returned to Florida he entered the University of Florida and in 1956 graduated with honors with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture. He remained a huge Gator fan all his Blue and Orange life, and his only prejudice was against the color combination of Garnet and Gold. Gene went to work in our nations capital at the United States Department of Agriculture, from 1956 until 1960, then with that wealth of experience, returned to his Florida and worked for 22 years, 1960 thru 1982, for the Florida State Board of Health.

He loved the Ocala National Forest and had several remote spots that he liked to visit and just commune with nature, among those was Hughes Island and a remote spot along Doe Lake in the south end of the forest. He would often visit these areas, pull out his lawn chair and just sit and watch and listen. He was truly a nature lover.

He was an avid deer hunter and spent some of his happiest times in the company of his friends at Iron Flats Hunting Club. Gene recently was presented an award for 50 years membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Flagler Beach, and direct descendant of Florida Pioneers William and Mary Holly, who helped found Ocklawaha Bridge Baptist Church. He was a member of Sons of Confederate Veterans, First Family of Florida, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the National Rifle Association.

He is survived by three children, Casey Eugene Leydon-Holly, 55, of St. Augustine, William Daniel Holly, 53, of Flagler Beach, and Carolyn Sue Holly, 37, of the Hammock, and seven grandchildren, Eugene Casey Leydon-Holly, 32, of Los Angeles, California, Samuel Brinson Leydon-Holly, 23, of Virginia Beach, Virginia, Peter Davis Leydon-Holly, 21, of St. Augustine; Carolyn Suezann Barnes, Andrea Jean Claspille, Joshua Holly, Thomas Hall, and three great-grandchildren, Kaytie Hall, Kylie Hall, Riley Holly.

Visitation will be held Tuesday at Craig Flagler Palms Funeral Home, 511 Old Kings Road South, Flagler Beach, from 4:00 pm till 8:00 pm, with a funeral service at 7:00 pm.

There will be the graveside service, Wednesday at 2:00 pm, at the Ocklawaha Bridge Baptist Church cemetery, in Marion County.

On behalf of the entire immediate and extended Holly family, our deepest thanks to the warm and professional staff of Sandalwood Nursing Home, and everyone known and unknown who has ever shared a smile with our father, our grandfather, our uncle, our native son, our beloved Gene. OLIVE, DIANA, 50

Johnson City - Diana Olive, age 50, went to be with the Lord Monday, April 12, 2010. She died of complications related to H1N1 influenza superimposed on a chronic autoimmune disease at Johnson City Medical Center. Born May 4, 1959, at Camp LeJeune, NC, she was the daughter of a career Marine and lived in various locations throughout the world during her youth. She was the daughter of the late Nathaniel Lee Snodgrass, Sr. and Rosemarie Laufs Snodgrass. She had lived in Johnson City since 1989. She was active in Grace Fellowship Church. Survivors include her husband Kenneth Olive, Johnson City; Elizabeth Benson and husband Jordan, Johnson City; Susan Olive, Johnson City; mother Rosemarie Snodgrass, Ocala FL; Sister JAE Snodgrass, Ocala FL; brother Lee Snodgrass Downingtown, PA; brother Kurt Snodgrass Ocala FL; several nieces and nephews. While burdened by chronic illness for over 14 years, Diana lived a full life. She was a registered nurse licensed in North Carolina, Ohio, and Tennessee, having worked in ICUs, cardiac rehabilitation, critical care nurse education, clinical trials, and as a summer camp nurse.

She was active in both church and community. She served as PTA president for Cherokee Elementary School for three years, was founding president of the Providence Academy parent support group Providence Education Partners, and was treasurer of the Science Hill Choral Parents Association. She had been a room mother, a chaperone for innumerable school trips, an organizer for fall festivals, and made crafts for many school fundraisers. One of her proudest achievements was coordinating Project Iraq Smiles which shipped thousands of bags of supplies to be distributed to Iraqi children by U.S. troops. She served as the Vacation Bible School director for two years at Westminster Fellowship Church and as a second grade Sunday School teacher at Grace Fellowship. Her passions included her Lord, her family, gardening, collecting matreshkas (Russian nesting dolls), poetry, needlework, home canning, and cooking. She gave selflessly to others and had a skill for making others feel good about themselves. She was a tireless note writer who encouraged many through this activity. Funeral services for Diana will be held at 7 PM, Thursday, April 15 at Grace Fellowship Church, Johnson City, with Pastor Tom Oyler officiating. A Committal service will be held at 10 AM, Friday, in Mountain Home National Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Lee, Kurt, Nate, Branden, Charles, & Michael Snodgrass and Jordan Benson. Everyone will meet at 9:15 AM, Friday, at the funeral home to go in procession. Her family will receive friends on Thursday from 4:30 PM until the service hour at the church. Diana's family thanks the many excellent physicians who cared for her, especially Drs. David Lurie, Jim Myers, Becky Copeland, Jeff Farrow, and Carlos Flouresguerra. Her nursing care was wonderful and all of the nurses who cared for her in the medical ICU (2800) were professional and compassionate. The nurse who helped with her final passage, Kelly Davis exhibited extraordinary skill and empathy. OLIVE, DIANA, 50

Johnson City - Diana Olive, age 50, went to be with the Lord Monday, April 12, 2010. She died of complications related to H1N1 influenza superimposed on a chronic autoimmune disease at Johnson City Medical Center. Born May 4, 1959, at Camp LeJeune, NC, she was the daughter of a career Marine and lived in various locations throughout the world during her youth. She was the daughter of the late Nathaniel Lee Snodgrass, Sr. and Rosemarie Laufs Snodgrass. She had lived in Johnson City since 1989. She was active in Grace Fellowship Church. Survivors include her husband Kenneth Olive, Johnson City; Elizabeth Benson and husband Jordan, Johnson City; Susan Olive, Johnson City; mother Rosemarie Snodgrass, Ocala FL; Sister JAE Snodgrass, Ocala FL; brother Lee Snodgrass Downingtown, PA; brother Kurt Snodgrass Ocala FL; several nieces and nephews. While burdened by chronic illness for over 14 years, Diana lived a full life. She was a registered nurse licensed in North Carolina, Ohio, and Tennessee, having worked in ICUs, cardiac rehabilitation, critical care nurse education, clinical trials, and as a summer camp nurse. She was active in both church and community. She served as PTA president for Cherokee Elementary School for three years, was founding president of the Providence Academy parent support group Providence Education Partners, and was treasurer of the Science Hill Choral Parents Association. She had been a room mother, a chaperone for innumerable school trips, an organizer for fall festivals, and made crafts for many school fundraisers. One of her proudest achievements was coordinating Project Iraq Smiles which shipped thousands of bags of supplies to be distributed to Iraqi children by U.S. troops. She served as the Vacation Bible School director for two years at Westminster Fellowship Church and as a second grade Sunday School teacher at Grace Fellowship. Her passions included her Lord, her family, gardening, collecting matreshkas (Russian nesting dolls), poetry, needlework, home canning, and cooking. She gave selflessly to others and had a skill for making others feel good about themselves. She was a tireless note writer who encouraged many through this activity. Funeral services for Diana will be held at 7 PM, Thursday, April 15 at Grace Fellowship Church, Johnson City, with Pastor Tom Oyler officiating. A Committal service will be held at 10 AM, Friday, in Mountain Home National Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Lee, Kurt, Nate, Branden, Charles, & Michael Snodgrass and Jordan Benson. Everyone will meet at 9:15 AM, Friday, at the funeral home to go in procession. Her family will receive friends on Thursday from 4:30 PM until the service hour at the church. Diana's family thanks the many excellent physicians who cared for her, especially Drs. David Lurie, Jim Myers, Becky Copeland, Jeff Farrow, and Carlos Flouresguerra. Her nursing care was wonderful and all of the nurses who cared for her in the medical ICU (2800) were professional and compassionate. The nurse who helped with her final passage, Kelly Davis exhibited extraordinary skill and empathy. BEITZ, URBAN GEORGE

Salt Spring - Urban George Beitz. On April 9, 2010 at 7:30 a.m. Urban George Beitz became the final member of the Salt Springs Senior Baseball team to make it into "Home Base"! "Urb" was born on August 10, 1920 in Buffalo, New York; worked for Hall's Bakery; and served in the Merchant Marines during World War II. Urb moved his family to Lake Worth, Fla. in 1952 and he moved to Salt Springs, Fl. in 1986. Urb's eyes misted whenever recalling how God patiently waited 77 years for him to surrender his life to Christ. He was baptized on 12/1/96 and served on the Board of Directors at Salt Springs Christian Church, and was a faithful Sunday Greeter. In earlier years, he volunteered for the Knights of Columbus, St. Vincent de Paul, and Hospice of Marion County, Fla. Urban is the beloved and respected father of Sharon Swezey (Terry) of Vero Beach, Fl.; Patricia McCallum (John) of Goode, Va.; Mary Estelle (Astrid Del Mar) (Jerry Polino) of Tamerindo, Mexico; and Jamie Heard (William) of Nellysford, Va. Urb is the grandfather of Tanya Marie Madison Cunningham of Kennett Square, Pa.; Carrie Ann Brunet of Charlottesville, Va.; Tiffeny Kristen Swezey and Timothy Urban Swezey of Vero Beach. He is the great-grandfather of Catherine Elizabeth Cunningham, and Tate Madison Cunningham of Kennett Square, Pa. Urb loved and cherished Judi and John Simmons, calling them "Ma and Pa/Emergency Response System" even though he was 20+ years their senior. Dee Pendleton was his beloved "Meals on Wheels/Nurse for 25 years, and Richmond Pendleton was his favorite cribbage partner /shopping partner; both were truly angels from heaven. Urb affectionately called his church home, world's kindest neighbors, and faithful friends his "second family." Pastor Walter Miller and his wife Marlene were his private airport shuttle, long-suffering friends, and excellent models of true Christianity. Although Urb will be terribly missed, he will bring fresh laughter to heaven. Because his biological parents (Estelle and Urban F.) died when he was only two years old, Urb was excited about finally joining them and his brothers, Lester and Everett. Urb especially looked forward to meeting his Faithful Heavenly Father, his Redeemer, the Lord Jesus Christ, and his ever-present Comforter/Advisor, the Holy Spirit! In lieu of flowers, please send any donations to: The Marion County Estelle's Hospice House; 2897 S.E. 62nd St., Ocala, FL 33480; or Salt Springs Christian Church; 24571 E Highway 316, Fort Mc Coy, FL 32134. A memorial service will be held at the Salt Springs Christian Church on Tuesday, April 20, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. Participants to celebrate are welcome! BEITZ, URBAN GEORGE

Salt Spring - Urban George Beitz. On April 9, 2010 at 7:30 a.m. Urban George Beitz became the final member of the Salt Springs Senior Baseball team to make it into "Home Base"! "Urb" was born on August 10, 1920 in Buffalo, New York; worked for Hall's Bakery; and served in the Merchant Marines during World War II. Urb moved his family to Lake Worth, Fla. in 1952 and he moved to Salt Springs, Fl. in 1986. Urb's eyes misted whenever recalling how God patiently waited 77 years for him to surrender his life to Christ. He was baptized on 12/1/96 and served on the Board of Directors at Salt Springs Christian Church, and was a faithful Sunday Greeter. In earlier years, he volunteered for the Knights of Columbus, St. Vincent de Paul, and Hospice of Marion County, Fla. Urban is the beloved and respected father of Sharon Swezey (Terry) of Vero Beach, Fl.; Patricia McCallum (John) of Goode, Va.; Mary Estelle (Astrid Del Mar) (Jerry Polino) of Tamerindo, Mexico; and Jamie Heard (William) of Nellysford, Va. Urb is the grandfather of Tanya Marie Madison Cunningham of Kennett Square, Pa.; Carrie Ann Brunet of Charlottesville, Va.; Tiffeny Kristen Swezey and Timothy Urban Swezey of Vero Beach. He is the great-grandfather of Catherine Elizabeth Cunningham, and Tate Madison Cunningham of Kennett Square, Pa. Urb loved and cherished Judi and John Simmons, calling them "Ma and Pa/Emergency Response System" even though he was 20+ years their senior. Dee Pendleton was his beloved "Meals on Wheels/Nurse for 25 years, and Richmond Pendleton was his favorite cribbage partner /shopping partner; both were truly angels from heaven. Urb affectionately called his church home, world's kindest neighbors, and faithful friends his "second family." Pastor Walter Miller and his wife Marlene were his private airport shuttle, long-suffering friends, and excellent models of true Christianity. Although Urb will be terribly missed, he will bring fresh laughter to heaven. Because his biological parents (Estelle and Urban F.) died when he was only two years old, Urb was excited about finally joining them and his brothers, Lester and Everett. Urb especially looked forward to meeting his Faithful Heavenly Father, his Redeemer, the Lord Jesus Christ, and his ever-present Comforter/Advisor, the Holy Spirit! In lieu of flowers, please send any donations to: The Marion County Estelle's Hospice House; 2897 S.E. 62nd St., Ocala, FL 33480; or Salt Springs Christian Church; 24571 E Highway 316, Fort Mc Coy, FL 32134. A memorial service will be held at the Salt Springs Christian Church on Tuesday, April 20, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. Participants to celebrate are welcome! KANNEGIETER, JESSIE VIOLA (1928-2010)

WATERLOO - On April 14, 2010, God looked down upon his poor, precious child, Jessie Viola Kannegieter. And in His Mercy, He charged His angels to go quickly, and bring His child to Him. They rushed down to that room where she lay, as her daughter and granddaughter prayed and soothed her brow, for the last time. She opened her eyes, at the very sound of her brother's voice, whom she dearly loved. Now then, as she felt the presence of angels, at that moment, her children saw her slip away, leaving that tired broken body. Those angels ushered her into the Holy Presence of God. He took her, at last, into his loving arms. She awoke, transformed, with a new body, free from the trials of earth; to live forevermore, in her Heavenly home. Her family blessed the Lord, for his loving kindness and mercies, as she left their arms and came into His Everlasting safekeeping. Jessie Viola Kannegieter was born on June 22, 1928, to Roy and Clara Beasley (Marquis), of Waterloo. She especially loved her Grandparents, Charles and Clara Marvitz, of Sherwood Park in Waterloo. She and her brother, Charles Welcher, spent many happy hours in the woodlands along the Cedar River. They had a pony, that she loved to ride and she told how she loved her Grandma's cooking. She had a sweet step Father, Kenneth Marquis, who loved her like his own. When he went into the Navy, in WWII, she and her Mother wrote many loving letters of encouragement to him. Jessie told how she always held her little brother's hand and cared so much for him. Jessie has a little sister, Sonja (Duckworth), whom she loved, and always kept her close to her heart. Jessie married the love of her life, Rev. Marvin Kannegieter, on June 21, 1951. They had many wonderful years with their two daughters, Judy (Burr) of Denver, Ia. and Mary (Boggs) of Carrollton, Ga. Those daughters were blessed and honored, to have such loving parents. Marvin and Jessie, were members of the Open Bible Church in Waterloo, where Jessie's family, were some of the first members. Marvin and Jessie co-pastored Walnut St. Calvary, in Waterloo, in the 1970's and moved to Ocala, Florida, with their daughter, Mary, where they ministered for 25 years. Jessie and Mary ministered by playing the organ and singing. Jessie was blessed by the ability to quote many chapters of the Bible from memory. They moved back to Waterloo, eight years ago, and enjoyed renewing friendships. They attended Walnut Ridge Baptist and enjoyed fellowship with new friends, as well. They were blessed with seven grandchildren: Jessica Burr, Elisabeth Cobb, Becca Still, Joey, Emily, and Angel Boggs, and Christy Boggs Kingkade; and five great grandchildren: Jackson and Audrey Cobb, Madison, Christian, and Brooklyn Kingkade. She has four sisters-in-laws, Pearl Mitchell, Elsie Kannegieter, Angeline Palmer, Maxine Welcher and two brother-in-laws, Kenny Palmer and Terry Duckworth, all of whom she loved, as well as, eight nephews and seven nieces. Jessie was reunited with her husband, who celebrated his heavenly birthday on July 3, 2007. Jessie was cared for by her daughter, Judy, for a time and then lived for three years at Bartels Retirement Community Center, in Waverly, where she had many loving caregivers. We will remember Jessie, with family and friends, with a time of visitation on Friday evening from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and a memorial service on Saturday, April 24th, at 2 p.m. at Kearns, Schumacher Chapel, on Kimball Ave, Waterloo. Rev. David Moore, of Walnut Ridge Baptist, is officiating. Internment at Gardens of Memory and a time of fellowship and luncheon, afterwards, at the Chapel. KANNEGIETER, JESSIE VIOLA (1928-2010)

WATERLOO - On April 14, 2010, God looked down upon his poor, precious child, Jessie Viola Kannegieter. And in His Mercy, He charged His angels to go quickly, and bring His child to Him. They rushed down to that room where she lay, as her daughter and granddaughter prayed and soothed her brow, for the last time. She opened her eyes, at the very sound of her brother's voice, whom she dearly loved. Now then, as she felt the presence of angels, at that moment, her children saw her slip away, leaving that tired broken body. Those angels ushered her into the Holy Presence of God. He took her, at last, into his loving arms. She awoke, transformed, with a new body, free from the trials of earth; to live forevermore, in her Heavenly home. Her family blessed the Lord, for his loving kindness and mercies, as she left their arms and came into His Everlasting safekeeping. Jessie Viola Kannegieter was born on June 22, 1928, to Roy and Clara Beasley (Marquis), of Waterloo. She especially loved her Grandparents, Charles and Clara Marvitz, of Sherwood Park in Waterloo. She and her brother, Charles Welcher, spent many happy hours in the woodlands along the Cedar River. They had a pony, that she loved to ride and she told how she loved her Grandma's cooking. She had a sweet step Father, Kenneth Marquis, who loved her like his own. When he went into the Navy, in WWII, she and her Mother wrote many loving letters of encouragement to him. Jessie told how she always held her little brother's hand and cared so much for him. Jessie has a little sister, Sonja (Duckworth), whom she loved, and always kept her close to her heart. Jessie married the love of her life, Rev. Marvin Kannegieter, on June 21, 1951. They had many wonderful years with their two daughters, Judy (Burr) of Denver, Ia. and Mary (Boggs) of Carrollton, Ga. Those daughters were blessed and honored, to have such loving parents. Marvin and Jessie, were members of the Open Bible Church in Waterloo, where Jessie's family, were some of the first members. Marvin and Jessie co-pastored Walnut St. Calvary, in Waterloo, in the 1970's and moved to Ocala, Florida, with their daughter, Mary, where they ministered for 25 years. Jessie and Mary ministered by playing the organ and singing. Jessie was blessed by the ability to quote many chapters of the Bible from memory. They moved back to Waterloo, eight years ago, and enjoyed renewing friendships. They attended Walnut Ridge Baptist and enjoyed fellowship with new friends, as well. They were blessed with seven grandchildren: Jessica Burr, Elisabeth Cobb, Becca Still, Joey, Emily, and Angel Boggs, and Christy Boggs Kingkade; and five great grandchildren: Jackson and Audrey Cobb, Madison, Christian, and Brooklyn Kingkade. She has four sisters-in-laws, Pearl

Mitchell, Elsie Kannegieter, Angeline Palmer, Maxine Welcher and two brother-in-laws, Kenny Palmer and Terry Duckworth, all of whom she loved, as well as, eight nephews and seven nieces. Jessie was reunited with her husband, who celebrated his heavenly birthday on July 3, 2007. Jessie was cared for by her daughter, Judy, for a time and then lived for three years at Bartels Retirement Community Center, in Waverly, where she had many loving caregivers. We will remember Jessie, with family and friends, with a time of visitation on Friday evening from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and a memorial service on Saturday, April 24th, at 2 p.m. at Kearns, Schumacher Chapel, on Kimball Ave, Waterloo. Rev. David Moore, of Walnut Ridge Baptist, is officiating. Interment at Gardens of Memory and a time of fellowship and luncheon, afterwards, at the Chapel. He took her, at last, into his loving arms. She awoke, transformed, with a new body, free from the trials of earth; to live forevermore, in her Heavenly home. Her family blessed the Lord, for his loving kindness and mercies, as she left their arms and came into His Everlasting safekeeping. Jessie Viola Kannegieter was born on June 22, 1928, to Roy and Clara Beasley (Marquis), of Waterloo. She especially loved her Grandparents, Charles and Clara Marvitz, of Sherwood Park in Waterloo. She and her brother, Charles Welcher, spent many happy hours in the woodlands along the Cedar River. They had a pony, that she loved to ride and she told how she loved her Grandma's cooking. She had a sweet step Father, Kenneth Marquis, who loved her like his own. When he went into the Navy, in WWII, she and her Mother wrote many loving letters of encouragement to him. Jessie told how she always held her little brother's hand and cared so much for him. Jessie has a little sister, Sonja (Duckworth), whom she loved, and always kept her close to her heart. Jessie married the love of her life, Rev. Marvin Kannegieter, on June 21, 1951. They had many wonderful years with their two daughters, Judy (Burr) of Denver, Ia. and Mary (Boggs) of Carrollton, Ga. Those daughters were blessed and honored, to have such loving parents. Marvin and Jessie, were members of the Open Bible Church in Waterloo, where Jessie's family, were some of the first members. Marvin and Jessie co-pastored Walnut St. Calvary, in Waterloo, in the 1970's and moved to Ocala, Florida, with their daughter, Mary, where they ministered for 25 years. Jessie and Mary ministered by playing the organ and singing. Jessie was blessed by the ability to quote many chapters of the Bible from memory. They moved back to Waterloo, eight years ago, and enjoyed renewing friendships. They attended Walnut Ridge Baptist and enjoyed fellowship with new friends, as well. They were blessed with seven grandchildren: Jessica Burr, Elisabeth Cobb, Becca Still, Joey, Emily, and Angel Boggs, and Christy Boggs Kingkade; and five great grandchildren: Jackson and Audrey Cobb, Madison, Christian, and Brooklyn Kingkade. She has four sisters-in-laws, Pearl

Mitchell, Elsie Kannegieter, Angeline Palmer, Maxine Welcher and two brother-in -laws, Kenny Palmer and Terry Duckworth, all of whom she loved, as well as, eight nephews and seven nieces. Jessie was reunited with her husband, who celebrated his heavenly birthday on July 3, 2007. Jessie was cared for by her daughter, Judy, for a time and then lived for three years at Bartels Retirement Community Center, in Waverly, where she had many loving caregivers. We will remember Jessie, with family and friends, with a time of visitation on Friday evening from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and a memorial service on Saturday, April 24th, at 2 p.m. at Kearns, Schumacher Chapel, on Kimball Ave, Waterloo. Rev. David Moore, of Walnut Ridge Baptist, is officiating. Interment at Gardens of Memory and a time of fellowship and luncheon, afterwards, at the Chapel. #### DAVID, JEFFERY

Shore of Stallings, North Carolina - Jeffrey David "Jeff" Shore of Stallings, North Carolina, passed away Saturday, May 1, 2010 surrounded by his family and friends after a courageous battle with brain cancer, which was diagnosed in October of 2008. He is survived by his wife of nearly nine years, Heather Ann Shore, and their son, Bryson Clark Shore, age (6). Jeff was born in Cortland, New York, on Friday, October 13, 1967. He attended Parker Elementary and Cortland Jr/Sr High School before his family moved to Ocala, Florida, during his 9th grade year. After graduating in 1985 from Vanguard High School, he attended Embry-Riddle with the initial goal of becoming a navigator for the US Air Force. Jeff had developed a love of aviation as a child, having opportunities to ride in a helicopter, the Goodyear blimp and planes. At Embry-Riddle, Jeff participated in Air Force ROTC and became a brother in the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Transferring to Florida State University in the fall of 1987, Jeff worked his way through college, which included taking a year off to work. He graduated in 1991 from FSU where he earned a Bachelor of Science with a double major in Economics and Geography. During Jeff's postgraduate employment, he worked at such firms as Salomon Brothers and Citigroup in Tampa, Florida; Barclays Global Investors and Investors Bank and Trust in San Francisco, California; and most recently, he worked at TIAA-CREF in Charlotte, North Carolina, as a Director. Jeff met his wife, Heather, at Salomon Brothers in 1994 in Tampa, and moved to San Francisco in 1998. They eloped to Sydney, Australia, to be married in October 2001 on a yacht in Sydney Harbor near the Sydney Opera House. In 2003, after moving to Charlotte, Jeff became the very proud father of their son, Bryson. Nature and the outdoors were always a passion for Jeff, and this was reflected in his interests, which included hiking, birding, fly-fishing, mountain biking, skiing, sea kayaking, golfing, white water rafting, sporting clays, hunting, and camping. During his school years and after, Jeff also enjoyed participating in sports, such as wrestling, lacrosse, baseball, track, racquetball and tennis. Jeff and his wife and son have been members of Weddington United Methodist Church since 2003. Prior to joining the Weddington Church family, Jeff and Heather attended Van Dyke United Methodist Church in Lutz, Florida, and Asbury United Methodist Church in Livermore, California. In addition to his wife and son, Jeff is survived by his Father, Dudley Shore, and his mother and step-father, Sharon and Tom Rountree, sister Kristy Casson, uncle Steve Shore, cousins Aaron and Collin Shore, grandmother Betty Reyome, grandparents Paul and Vivian Bush, aunt and uncle Pauline and Marty Pilot, cousins Kelly Hargett and her family, and Marty Pilot and his family, aunt Pricscilla and cousins John and Megan, and aunt Sandy and cousins Chad and Addie, uncle Buddy Bush, and cousin Jim Hartigan. Memorial services celebrating Jeff's life will be held at Weddington United Methodist Church, 13901 Providence Road, Weddington, NC, on Saturday May 15th at 10 A.M. ### DAVID, JEFFERY

Shore of Stallings, North Carolina - Jeffrey David "Jeff" Shore of Stallings, North Carolina, passed away Saturday, May 1, 2010 surrounded by his family and friends after a courageous battle with brain cancer, which was diagnosed in October of 2008. He is survived by his wife of nearly nine years, Heather Ann Shore, and their son, Bryson Clark Shore, age (6). Jeff was born in Cortland, New York, on Friday, October 13, 1967. He attended Parker Elementary and Cortland Jr/Sr High School before his family moved to Ocala, Florida, during his 9th grade year. After graduating in 1985 from Vanguard High School, he attended Embry-Riddle with the initial goal of becoming a navigator for the US Air Force. Jeff had developed a love of aviation as a child, having opportunities to ride in a helicopter, the Goodyear blimp and planes. At Embry-Riddle, Jeff participated in Air Force ROTC and became a brother in the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Transferring to Florida State University in the fall of 1987, Jeff worked his way through college, which included taking a year off to work. He graduated in 1991 from FSU where he earned a Bachelor of Science with a double major in Economics and Geography. During Jeff's postgraduate employment, he worked at such firms as Salomon Brothers and Citigroup in Tampa, Florida; Barclays Global Investors and Investors Bank and Trust in San Francisco, California; and most recently, he worked at TIAA-CREF in Charlotte, North Carolina, as a Director. Jeff met his wife, Heather, at Salomon Brothers in 1994 in Tampa, and moved to San Francisco in 1998. They eloped to Sydney, Australia, to be married in October 2001 on a yacht in Sydney Harbor near the Sydney Opera House. In 2003, after moving to Charlotte, Jeff became the very proud father of their son, Bryson. Nature and the outdoors were always a passion for Jeff, and this was reflected in his interests, which included hiking, birding, fly-fishing, mountain biking, skiing, sea kayaking, golfing, white water rafting, sporting clays, hunting, and camping. During his school years and after, Jeff also enjoyed participating in sports, such as wrestling, lacrosse, baseball, track, racquetball and tennis. Jeff and his wife and son have been members of Weddington United Methodist Church since 2003. Prior to joining the Weddington Church family, Jeff and Heather attended Van Dyke United Methodist Church in Lutz, Florida, and Asbury United Methodist Church in Livermore, California. In addition to his wife and son, Jeff is survived by his Father, Dudley Shore, and his mother and step-father, Sharon and Tom Rountree, sister Kristy Casson, uncle Steve Shore, cousins Aaron and Collin Shore, grandmother Betty Reyome, grandparents Paul and Vivian Bush, aunt and uncle Pauline and Marty Pilot, cousins Kelly Hargett and her family, and Marty Pilot and his family, aunt

Pricscilla and cousins John and Megan, and aunt Sandy and cousins Chad and Addie, uncle Buddy Bush, and cousin Jim Hartigan. DECONNA, DOMINIC

Dominic "Don" DeConna born August 25, 1918 in Barnesboro, Pennsylvania to Italian immigrant parents, died this past Friday, May 7, 2010 at the Villages in Gainesville. One of 12 children, his father died when he was four and he began working in the coal mines when he was five years old. He played in the minor league and was about to be signed with the New York Yankees but joined the U.S. Army in 1938 instead, and survived the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941. He stayed in the Army for the duration of the war as a Sergeant and led his men in some very hard fought battles on the islands of Saipan and Tinian. After the war he moved to Miami in 1947 and started selling ice cream from a rented push cart. From there he built the business to a state wide ice cream manufacturing and distribution firm, DeConna Ice Cream Company. He believed in hard work and worked full time up to the age of 89. He was married to his wife Louise for 48 years until her death in 2000. He will be remembered by his family and friends as a great friend, a loving father and a terrific grandfather. He never met a stranger and will be remembered for his generosity and warmth. He was a faithful member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church for almost 50 years. In his free time he enjoyed golfing, playing bocce and watching the Yankees. He also loved to spend time outside taking care of his citrus trees and grape vines. He is survived by his four children, Donna, Bill and his wife Rebekah, Vince, Ray and his wife Karen; four grandchildren, Michael, Nicholas and his wife Teresa, Christina and her husband A.J. and Rachel; one brother, Victor and two sisters, Christine and Genevieve. #### DECONNA, DOMINIC

Dominic "Don" DeConna born August 25, 1918 in Barnesboro, Pennsylvania to Italian immigrant parents, died this past Friday, May 7, 2010 at the Villages in Gainesville. One of 12 children, his father died when he was four and he began working in the coal mines when he was five years old. He played in the minor league and was about to be signed with the New York Yankees but joined the U.S. Army in 1938 instead, and survived the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941. He stayed in the Army for the duration of the war as a Sergeant and led his men in some very hard fought battles on the islands of Saipan and Tinian. After the war he moved to Miami in 1947 and started selling ice cream from a rented push cart. From there he built the business to a state wide ice cream manufacturing and distribution firm, DeConna Ice Cream Company. He believed in hard work and worked full time up to the age of 89. He was married to his wife Louise for 48 years until her death in 2000. He will be remembered by his family and friends as a great friend, a loving father and a terrific grandfather. He never met a stranger and will be remembered for his generosity and warmth. He was a faithful member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church for almost 50 years. In his free time he enjoyed golfing, playing bocce and watching the Yankees. He also loved to spend time outside taking care of his citrus trees and grape vines. He is survived by his four children, Donna, Bill and his wife Rebekah, Vince, Ray and his wife Karen; four grandchildren, Michael, Nicholas and his wife Teresa, Christina and her husband A.J. and Rachel; one brother, Victor and two sisters, Christine and Genevieve. #### DECONNA, DOMINIC

Dominic "Don" DeConna born August 25, 1918 in Barnesboro, Pennsylvania to Italian immigrant parents, died this past Friday, May 7, 2010 at the Villages in Gainesville. One of 12 children, his father died when he was four and he began working in the coal mines when he was five years old. He played in the minor league and was about to be signed with the New York Yankees but joined the U.S. Army in 1938 instead, and survived the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941. He stayed in the Army for the duration of the war as a Sergeant and led his men in some very hard fought battles on the islands of Saipan and Tinian. After the war he moved to Miami in 1947 and started selling ice cream from a rented push cart. From there he built the business to a state wide ice cream manufacturing and distribution firm, DeConna Ice Cream Company. He believed in hard work and worked full time up to the age of 89. He was married to his wife Louise for 48 years until her death in 2000. He will be remembered by his family and friends as a great friend, a loving father and a terrific grandfather. He never met a stranger and will be remembered for his generosity and warmth. He was a faithful member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church for almost 50 years. In his free time he enjoyed golfing, playing bocce and watching the Yankees. He also loved to spend time outside taking care of his citrus trees and grape vines. He is survived by his four children, Donna, Bill and his wife Rebekah, Vince, Ray and his wife Karen; four grandchildren, Michael, Nicholas and his wife Teresa, Christina and her husband A.J. and Rachel; one brother, Victor and two sisters, Christine and Genevieve.
