Preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, George Ralph Stancil; brother, Percy Hales; sister, Ruby Hales Brown Blair; grandson, Jay Benjamin Hinton. Ethel, born July 24, 1916, in Cuthbert, Randolph County, Ga., was the youngest child of Octavia Creech and William Madison Hales. William and brother, Ransom, father of Gladys Hales who married Robert Ringgold, moved their families from Johnston County, N.C., to Ga. They farmed and started a neighborhood Baptist Church. In 1919 William and Ransom visited Marion County, Fla., and Silver Springs. They liked the area. Each purchased 200 acres, moved possessions by rail and families by car to Ocala. They attended the Cottage Hill Christian Church, when the minister left in 1923; they joined First Christian Church, Ocala. Ethel's dad was first to grow tobacco in Marion County. They sold it in Georgia. He also started a dairy. Ethel milked 6 cows twice a day; she was just 9 years old. William was a school teacher in N.C. When 11-year-old Ethel showed an interest in writing, her dad purchased a Remington typewriter from Sears & Roebuck. The family had many visitors from N.C. Her mother often said that anyone who had ever heard of them stopped by for free room and board! A group of visitors in July 1927 were Uncle Jesse Hales, nephew Robert Pittman, Uncle Abednigo Atkinson, Ralph Stancil and Raymond Hill. In 1932, Ralph, 24, wrote Ethel a letter inquiring about jobs in Florida. Thus began their courtship by letters. Ralph moved to Dos Rios, Calif., and found work on a ranch. In 1934, after Ethel graduated valedictorian from Ocala High School, Ethel and Ralph arranged to meet at the Stancil Family Reunion in Johnston County, N.C. Ralph rode the Greyhound Bus from California to the reunion. After this visit, they became engaged. Ralph returned to Calif. and Ethel returned to Florida where she started a stenographer business. A year later, Ralph and Ethel married on Aug. 21, 1935, in First Christian Church, Ocala. After the ceremony, they rode the Greyhound Bus to the Stancil Reunion and then out to Calif. In 1996 Ethel wrote about their courtship in her book, Love For Keeps. During 1 1/2 years on the ranch, both of their fathers died. This prompted a move to Ocala. Ethel applied for a job in 1937 with Cecil Bryant, who managed the Savings and Loan and gas plant. It paid $10 a week. His son Farris became the 34th governor of Fla. Ethel and Ralph started their farm in 1938. Ralph began buying day-old dairy calves. When WWII started, Ralph traveled, working in shipyards. Feeding the calves twice a day and supervising farming became Ethel's job. Ethel worked for Mr. Bryant until 1944 when her second child was born. She joined the neighborhood Cottage Hill Home Demonstration Club and was active until they disbanded in the 1970s. Ethel sold articles to several magazines and wrote a weekly column, Cottage Hill News, for the Ocala Star Banner. She wrote a monthly column, The Kowbelles, for the Florida Cattlemen magazine. Later in 1984, she and daughter Georgeanne put together a Stancil Family Cookbook. Life changed forever on Jan. 3, 1951. A drunk driver crashed into Ethel and Ralph's new Studebaker car in S.C. They were returning to Fla. from N.C. The impact pushed the engine back, crushing and breaking Ethel's legs. Ethel wrote about it in her 1999 book, Not A Leg To Stand On. She spent 9 months in Monroe Memorial Hospital, Ocala. Making a living farming was difficult. Ethel decided she needed to return to work. In 1953, she was hired by James S. Weaver. He took over Mr. Bryant's business. Ethel was on crutches, but over time she was able to walk without even using a cane. Mr. Weaver started a CPA firm and Ethel stayed with the firm. Today it is Duggan, Joiner & Company. In 1977, after 25 years of service, the firm honored Ethel with a surprise dinner and set of luggage. Ethel and Ralph began traveling. They toured farms in The Netherlands, England, France, Germany, Australia and New Zealand and stayed with farm families. Along with many trips to N.C. they also visited Alaska, Fiji and Hawaii. Ethel loved her church. She taught

Sunday School, was church historian, attended church conventions and served on the evangelism committee. Ethel invited people to church and took neighborhood children. She often invited folks for Sunday dinner. Ethel retired in 1996 at 80 years old. Now she focused on her first love, writing. Ethel had a wonderful sense of humor. Her last book, Memories, published in 2005, reflected this. On Friday, June 29, 2001, NW 60th Avenue was officially named Stancil Avenue and the intersection of US Hwy 27 and NW 60th Ave., was officially named Stancil's Corner in honor of Ethel and Ralph Stancil for their contributions to Marion County. In lieu of flowers, a donation may be made in Ethel's memory to First Christian Church, 1908 East Fort King Street, Ocala, FL 34471-2529. Preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, George Ralph Stancil; brother, Percy Hales; sister, Ruby Hales Brown Blair; grandson, Jay Benjamin Hinton. Ethel, born July 24, 1916, in Cuthbert, Randolph County, Ga., was the youngest child of Octavia Creech and William Madison Hales. William and brother, Ransom, father of Gladys Hales who married Robert Ringgold, moved their families from Johnston County, N.C., to Ga. They farmed and started a neighborhood Baptist Church. In 1919 William and Ransom visited Marion County, Fla., and Silver Springs. They liked the area. Each purchased 200 acres, moved possessions by rail and families by car to Ocala. They attended the Cottage Hill Christian Church, when the minister left in 1923; they joined First Christian Church, Ocala. Ethel's dad was first to grow tobacco in Marion County. They sold it in Georgia. He also started a dairy. Ethel milked 6 cows twice a day; she was just 9 years old. William was a school teacher in N.C. When 11-year-old Ethel showed an interest in writing, her dad purchased a Remington typewriter from Sears & Roebuck. The family had many visitors from N.C. Her mother often said that anyone who had ever heard of them stopped by for free room and board! A group of visitors in July 1927 were Uncle Jesse Hales, nephew Robert Pittman, Uncle Abednigo Atkinson, Ralph Stancil and Raymond Hill. In 1932, Ralph, 24, wrote Ethel a letter inquiring about jobs in Florida. Thus began their courtship by letters. Ralph moved to Dos Rios, Calif., and found work on a ranch. In 1934, after Ethel graduated valedictorian from Ocala High School, Ethel and Ralph arranged to meet at the Stancil Family Reunion in Johnston County, N.C. Ralph rode the Greyhound Bus from California to the reunion. After this visit, they became engaged. Ralph returned to Calif. and Ethel returned to Florida where she started a stenographer business. A year later, Ralph and Ethel married on Aug. 21, 1935, in First Christian Church, Ocala. After the ceremony, they rode the Greyhound Bus to the Stancil Reunion and then out to Calif. In 1996 Ethel wrote about their courtship in her book, Love For Keeps. During 1 1/2 years on the ranch, both of their fathers died. This prompted a move to Ocala. Ethel applied for a job in 1937 with Cecil Bryant, who managed the Savings and Loan and gas plant. It paid $10 a week. His son Farris became the 34th governor of Fla. Ethel and Ralph started their farm in 1938. Ralph began buying day-old dairy calves. When WWII started, Ralph traveled, working in shipyards. Feeding the calves twice a day and supervising farming became Ethel's job. Ethel worked for Mr. Bryant until 1944 when her second child was born. She joined the neighborhood Cottage Hill Home Demonstration Club and was active until they disbanded in the 1970s. Ethel sold articles to several magazines and wrote a weekly column, Cottage Hill News, for the Ocala Star Banner. She wrote a monthly column, The Kowbelles, for the Florida Cattlemen magazine. Later in 1984, she and daughter Georgeanne put together a Stancil Family Cookbook. Life changed forever on Jan. 3, 1951. A drunk driver crashed into Ethel and Ralph's new Studebaker car in S.C. They were returning to Fla. from N.C. The impact pushed the engine back, crushing and breaking Ethel's legs. Ethel wrote about it in her 1999 book, Not A Leg To Stand On. She spent 9 months in Monroe Memorial Hospital, Ocala. Making a living farming was difficult. Ethel decided she needed to return to work. In 1953, she was hired by James S. Weaver. He took over Mr. Bryant's business. Ethel was on crutches, but over time she was able to walk without even using a cane. Mr. Weaver started a CPA firm and Ethel stayed with the firm. Today it is Duggan, Joiner & Company. In 1977, after 25 years of service, the firm honored Ethel with a surprise dinner and set of luggage. Ethel and Ralph began traveling. They toured farms in The Netherlands, England, France, Germany, Australia and New Zealand and stayed with farm families. Along with many trips to N.C. they also visited Alaska, Fiji and Hawaii. Ethel loved her church. She taught Sunday School, was church historian, attended church conventions and served on the evangelism committee. Ethel invited people to church and took neighborhood children. She often invited folks for Sunday dinner. Ethel retired in 1996 at 80 years old. Now she focused on her first love, writing. Ethel had a wonderful sense of humor. Her last book, Memories, published in 2005, reflected this. On Friday, June 29, 2001, NW 60th Avenue was officially named Stancil Avenue and the intersection of US Hwy 27 and NW 60th Ave., was officially named Stancil's Corner in honor of Ethel and Ralph Stancil for their contributions to Marion County. In lieu of flowers, a donation may be made in Ethel's memory to First Christian Church, 1908 East Fort King Street, Ocala, FL 34471-2529. NICHOLS, RALPH TROY

OCALA - Ralph Troy Nichols passed away in his home March 29, 2011. He was born in Ocala, Florida December 5, 1969. He owned R2 Boats in Ocala, where he worked with his father Leon Nichols, for over 20 years. He was also a professional skydiving instructor.

Ralph, or Troy, as those from childhood still called him, will always be remembered for his exceptional loyalty as a friend. Making others laugh gave him great joy. He loved taking care of people and always placed the needs of others before his own. He was incredibly skilled and could repair almost anything. He was proud of the time he spent working in Iraq as a contractor in 2004-2005. The skydiving community admired "Ralphie" for his skill, dedication, and generosity. He completed over eight thousand jumps and had reached the level of tandem master. Ralph felt at home in "wallowing" in the islands with his friends, barefoot, eating cracked conch. "Magnus" respected the power of "Mother Ocean" and always felt connected to the sea. "Maybe he was a pirate, 200 years too late?"

He was preceded in death by his father Leon, affectionately called Pappy, who lost his battle with cancer in January, 2011. His mother lives in Ocala and his sister lives in Atlanta. He is survived by his family, which to him included all of the friends who were part of his life.

NICHOLS, RALPH TROY

OCALA - Ralph Troy Nichols passed away in his home March 29, 2011. He was born in Ocala, Florida December 5, 1969. He owned R2 Boats in Ocala, where he worked with his father Leon Nichols, for over 20 years. He was also a professional skydiving instructor. Ralph, or Troy, as those from childhood still called him, will always be remembered for his exceptional loyalty as a friend. Making others laugh gave him great joy. He loved taking care of people and always placed the needs of others before his own. He was incredibly skilled and could repair almost anything. He was proud of the time he spent working in Iraq as a contractor in 2004-2005. The skydiving community admired "Ralphie" for his skill, dedication, and generosity. He completed over eight thousand jumps and had reached the level of tandem master. Ralph felt at home in "wallowing" in the islands with his friends, barefoot, eating cracked conch. "Magnus" respected the power of "Mother Ocean" and always felt connected to the sea. "Maybe he was a pirate, 200 years too late?" He was preceded in death by his father Leon, affectionately called Pappy, who lost his battle with cancer in January, 2011. His mother lives in Ocala and his sister lives in Atlanta. He is survived by his family, which to him included all of the friends who were part of his life. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to either Feral Felines in Chokoloskee, Florida at PO Box 564, Chokoloskee, FL 34138 or Shy Wolf Sanctuary at 1161 27th St. SW, Naples, FL 34117 (www.shywolfsanctuary.com).

ROBERT C. GOLDBLATT

6/6/1925 to 4/29/2011

Born on the 6th of June, 1925, to British immigrants, Naomi and Louis Goldblatt, in Philadelphia, PA, just 10 minutes after brother Joe, and the youngest of 6 children, Robert Goldblatt died after a long illness at his home on the 29th of April, 2011. He is survived by his wife Grace, and his 4 children: Thomas (Fay), Alan (Patricia), Mike (Joan) and Marlene Sanders, 9 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren and numerous other relatives and friends.

After serving with the US Navy 8th Beach Battalion in World War II in the Pacific and Mediterranean theaters, Bob returned to Philadelphia where he married Mildred Goldberg (of blessed memory), and began his family. He was hired by UNIVAC as a computer programmer in the late 1950's after completing his education. Active in his local synagogue, Tiferes Israel, where his children received their Jewish education, Bob also served as Assistant Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 169 during the time his sons were active in the troop. He was a firm believer in a broad education including academics, music, survival skills, and especially appreciation of nature in all its taxonomic complexity.

Bob recognized the importance of being able to name constellations and was always ready to share that knowledge on a crisp wintry night with any child unlucky enough to be without a coat and in proximity during one of his extended moments of unrestrained joy of teaching.

With a penchant for solving problems, he was never far from a cryptogram or crossword puzzle. Bob claimed to have inherited this inclination from his father. As a devotee of 'scientific' golf, he had an admirably consistent swing and a keen sense of golf etiquette, which he would passionately share with friends, and especially with his children.

His intense quest for answers to all sorts of questions, whether theological, mathematical or cultural, and his undying support for the State of Israel were major attributes which he passed on to his children.

More recently, Bob met and married Grace Geier, and they made a new life together in Ocala. Her warmth and sense of humor greatly enriched his final years. The family wishes to express its heartfelt gratitude to Grace and especially her son-in-law, Hank Reilly, for providing unflagging physical and emotional support during the final 2 years of Bob's battle with lung cancer.

Funeral Services will be held Sunday, May 1, 2011 at 10:00 a.m. in the chapel of WILLIAMS-THOMAS FUNERAL HOME DOWNTOWN, 404 North Main Street, Gainesville with Rabbi David Kaiman officiating. Interment will follow at B'nai Israel Cemetery, corner of University Avenue and Waldo Road.

Charitable contributions in Robert Goldblatt's memory may be sent to Congregation B'nai Israel, General Fund, 3830 NW 16th Blvd., Gainesville, FL 32605.

He is also survived by his sister, Sandra Mapp, her husband Bobby and their sons, Troy and Curtis. In addition, he has left behind his gracious and kind extended family in Key West. "Bubba," as he was known to his family and friends, just wanted the simple things in life, he loved all animals, especially Lulu, his Boston Terrier, and took great pleasure in the clean lines of a well-engineered car, good music and good food. After retiring to Ocala, he then moved to Texas to be closer to his three grandchildren who loved him very much. To see the joy on his face when he was around his grandchildren temporarily erased all of his health issues and he was able to enjoy life in that moment. Special care and recognition to his lifelong partner, friend and caregiver, Olivia Conrad and her family. She made the last moments of his life on this earth as comforting and loving as possible. Daddy, Bert, "Bubba" you will be missed greatly and loved always. A memorial service will be forthcoming. Please share your memories of Bubba on Legacy.com. LEMIEUX, PATRICIA

Patricia Ann LeMieux, a daughter given by the Lord to George and Catherine Hoey, was born in New York City, New York on November 23, 1933 and died in her Dunnellon home surrounded by her children early Friday morning, May 13th following a brave battle with cancer. In the days prior to her passing she had expressed to her family her desire to have her suffering be over and to depart and be with the Lord.

Today we rejoice in the knowledge that she has passed the barrier of time as we know it and is forever at home with the Savior she faithfully served her whole life.

Patricia LeMieux was the beloved wife of the late James E. LeMieux together, for more than 33 years; they experienced the changing scenes of life in their joyous and fruitful companionship, which the Lord had entrusted to them. She dedicated her life to caring for her children and grandchildren.

Patricia was the loving mother of John G. Raynor, Roger T. Raynor, Patrick (Patti) M. LeMieux, Catherine (late Tony) A. Prevesk, Georgette (Lori) LeMieux and Mary (Trevor) E. Durette; proud grandmother of 19, dearest great-grandmother of 11; dear sister of Betty Smith and dear sister of George Hoey; fond aunt of many nieces and nephews.

Christian family, friends, brothers and sisters, are indeed the most meaningful gifts of life. Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them." (Revelation 14:13).

Visitation is Monday 5 - 7 PM at Roberts Funeral Home 19939 E. Pennsylvania Ave Dunnellon, FL 34432. Mass of Christian burial Tuesday 10:00 AM at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church Dunnellon, FL with interment at Florida National Cemetery at 1:30 PM.

LEMIEUX, PATRICIA

Patricia Ann LeMieux, a daughter given by the Lord to George and Catherine Hoey, was born in New York City, New York on November 23, 1933 and died in her Dunnellon home surrounded by her children early Friday morning, May 13th following a brave battle with cancer. In the days prior to her passing she had expressed to her family her desire to have her suffering be over and to depart and be with the Lord.

Today we rejoice in the knowledge that she has passed the barrier of time as we know it and is forever at home with the Savior she faithfully served her whole life.

Patricia LeMieux was the beloved wife of the late James E. LeMieux together, for more than 33 years; they experienced the changing scenes of life in their joyous and fruitful companionship, which the Lord had entrusted to them. She dedicated her life to caring for her children and grandchildren.

Patricia was the loving mother of John G. Raynor, Roger T. Raynor, Patrick (Patti) M. LeMieux, Catherine (late Tony) A. Prevesk, Georgette (Lori) LeMieux and Mary (Trevor) E. Durette; proud grandmother of 19, dearest great-grandmother of 11; dear sister of Betty Smith and dear sister of George Hoey; fond aunt of many nieces and nephews.

Christian family, friends, brothers and sisters, are indeed the most meaningful gifts of life. Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them." (Revelation 14:13).

Visitation is Monday 5 - 7 PM at Roberts Funeral Home 19939 E. Pennsylvania Ave Dunnellon, FL 34432. Mass of Christian burial Tuesday 10:00 AM at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church Dunnellon, FL with interment at Florida National Cemetery at 1:30 PM.

CORRY, VERNA ALMIRA, 90

Ocala - She once said she would never go anywhere without an invitation, but Verna Almira Corry, 90, was invited to the next life, and gracefully accepted in the early hours of the morning of May 6, 2011. She was born in Canada on June 25, 1920 to Myrtle and Norman Fenby, the third of four children. As a young woman, she moved to Dayton, Ohio, and worked at Wright Patterson Air Force Base where she met her future husband, William Adair Corry, whom she married on November 27, 1944 following a brief engagement. She was proudly naturalized as an American citizen on December 24, 1946, and spent the next four decades in Toledo, Ohio raising her family. She moved to Florida in 1986. Her lively character captivated generations of friends, family, neighbors, children and grandchildren. She had charisma, flair and an unwavering sense of style, gravitating always toward the brightest of colors, glitteriest of embellishments and the flashiest of flowers. Verna loved a lively party, basking in the sun, a great garage sale, a winning hand of bridge, true life murder mysteries and anything on sale. In true character, she fought with an unflagging intensity for life and independence right through her very last days on this earth. She lives on through her children: Grier and Rick (Michelle) Corry; her grandchildren: Eric, Zack, Michael, Doug, Emily, Danielle and Kyle; her great-grandchildren: Emily, Tommy, Anna, Adam, Anderson and Jenna; her dear adopted family: Sam, Phil, Reagan and Austie Matthews; and her special friends: Mary, David and Natalie. She was preceded in death by her first-born son, John Adair Corry and the two great loves of her life: her husband Bill Corry and dear friend and partner, John Toole. As was her wish, Verna's ashes will be laid to rest in the clear, gentle waters of Lake Hamilton and Lake Michigan in non-traditional ceremonies. A private celebration of Verna's life was held on May 11, 2011 at the home of friends. "Today, the light shines like the sun through her skin and when we ask what she did with her life, we will remember a thousand moments with a smile and will proudly say 'she was one of us.'"
