BURTON, CHARLES EDWARD, 81

Ocala - Charles Edward Burton of Ocala, FL was born just after the onset of the Great Depression and grew up in Pennsylvania, the son of second-generation German immigrants. Like so many in that time, he enlisted in the Air Force after his last high school bell rang. He spent eight years as a weapons technician serving in the Korean War, traveling throughout Europe and Asia, and living through the adventures that would later become the substance of great stories. True to his headstrong nature, he eloped with Gladys Burton, another native Pennsylvanian, in 1956. It was not long after that his two sons, Charles Adin Burton and Blake Edward Burton were born. The following decades saw him working as an aircraft mechanic; taking jobs anywhere in the world to better support his family. Moving to the Philippines, Japan, Congo, Kenya, Saudi Arabia, and throughout most of the United States, there were few places Charles Burton had not wielded a wrench. Often uprooting the family with him, he provided a very unique and often dynamic home life. It was these experiences that shaped the larger than life stories he would share to anyone within earshot. Charles Burton, or Charlie, as those closest referred to him as, spent the last 20 years of his retirement in Ocala, Florida. A peaceful homestead amongst horse farms and open space, he was particularly lucky to have spent the past several years as a neighbor to one of his sons and several of his grandchildren. A survivor of prostate cancer and late stage lung cancer, Charles Edward Burton, at age 81, unexpectedly passed away in his sleep during the early hours of January 1, 2013. True to his nature he passed away on his terms - peacefully and comfortably. Arrangements by Roberts Funeral Homes, Downtown Chapel, Ocala, FL., 352-622-4141. BURTON, CHARLES EDWARD, 81

Ocala - Charles Edward Burton of Ocala, FL was born just after the onset of the Great Depression and grew up in Pennsylvania, the son of second-generation German immigrants. Like so many in that time, he enlisted in the Air Force after his last high school bell rang. He spent eight years as a weapons technician serving in the Korean War, traveling throughout Europe and Asia, and living through the adventures that would later become the substance of great stories. True to his headstrong nature, he eloped with Gladys Burton, another native Pennsylvanian, in 1956. It was not long after that his two sons, Charles Adin Burton and Blake Edward Burton were born. The following decades saw him working as an aircraft mechanic; taking jobs anywhere in the world to better support his family. Moving to the Philippines, Japan, Congo, Kenya, Saudi Arabia, and throughout most of the United States, there were few places Charles Burton had not wielded a wrench. Often uprooting the family with him, he provided a very unique and often dynamic home life. It was these experiences that shaped the larger than life stories he would share to anyone within earshot. Charles Burton, or Charlie, as those closest referred to him as, spent the last 20 years of his retirement in Ocala, Florida. A peaceful homestead amongst horse farms and open space, he was particularly lucky to have spent the past several years as a neighbor to one of his sons and several of his grandchildren. A survivor of prostate cancer and late stage lung cancer, Charles Edward Burton, at age 81, unexpectedly passed away in his sleep during the early hours of January 1, 2013. True to his nature he passed away on his terms - peacefully and comfortably. Arrangements by Roberts Funeral Homes, Downtown Chapel, Ocala, FL., 352-622-4141. SCOTT, EILEEN WIDDOWSON

Ocala - -Eileen (Driscoll) Widdowson Scott, 89, known for her creative endeavors, died on January 9, 2013 after nearly 30 years as a prominent member of this community. She and her late husband Jack Scott managed one of Ocala's largest homes, where they lived and rented units. She then ran a one-person tour agency, not only showing Ocala's famous thoroughbred ranches and old mansions from her van but also taking tourists right onto the properties for coffee in the kitchens with the owners and even into paddocks and stables to show them well-known horses and newborn foals. Prior to her 1983 marriage to Scott in Wakefield, Mass., she also gave cooking classes in the middle of Boston-area supermarkets, managed a family resort for billionaire John D. MacArthur near where the TV series "Treasure Island" was televised (one frequent resident was MacArthur himself shortly before his death at age 81) and managed the quaint Turks Head Inn on Grand Turk Island. Mrs. Scott, known to most by her first name, was admitted to Tuscany House in Summerfield in mid-December due to pneumonia and succumbed at the Marion County hospice center three weeks later. Born on March 9, 1923, in Westfield, Mass., Eileen was the third child in the Driscoll family of ten. She lived in Glendale, California, in her early years and spent her school years in Melrose, Mass., where she married Dr. Robert Widdowson in 1943 just after he was drafted into the Navy while in dental school. Robert, who is deceased, and Eileen had three children who survive her: Robert of Belize, Caryl of Gray, Maine, and Janet of Petaluma, California. Eileen also lived for many years on the rocky coast of Lanesville, Mass., a small town adjacent to Gloucester. From the Driscoll family she is survived by two sisters, Jean Cain of Downingtown, Pennsylvania, and Betty Connolly of Melrose; and two brothers, Jack of Rye, N.H., and David of Melrose. She was pre-deceased by sisters Kay Bistany of Fitchburg, Mass., Mary Liz Sheehan of Eugene, Oregon, and Patricia Scarpa of Reading, Mass., as well as brothers James and Robert, both of Melrose. Only a few days before she became ill in December a family memoir entitled, Picnic for Twelve, written by her brother Jack Driscoll, was published, and she received the first copy. In the acknowledgments Jack wrote that Eileen was the "go-to person" for family information. " She has a knack for remembering anecdotes," he wrote. Services will be held at the Roberts Bruce Chapel East, 2739 SE Maricamp Rd; Ocala 34471 on Saturday, January 19th at 10 a.m. A social Driscoll family gathering will be held in Melrose this summer, at her request. SCOTT, EILEEN WIDDOWSON

Ocala - -Eileen (Driscoll) Widdowson Scott, 89, known for her creative endeavors, died on January 9, 2013 after nearly 30 years as a prominent member of this community. She and her late husband Jack Scott managed one of Ocala's largest homes, where they lived and rented units. She then ran a one-person tour agency, not only showing Ocala's famous thoroughbred ranches and old mansions from her van but also taking tourists right onto the properties for coffee in the kitchens with the owners and even into paddocks and stables to show them well-known horses and newborn foals. Prior to her 1983 marriage to Scott in Wakefield, Mass., she also gave cooking classes in the middle of Boston-area supermarkets, managed a family resort for billionaire John D. MacArthur near where the TV series "Treasure Island" was televised (one frequent resident was MacArthur himself shortly before his death at age 81) and managed the quaint Turks Head Inn on Grand Turk Island. Mrs. Scott, known to most by her first name, was admitted to Tuscany House in Summerfield in mid-December due to pneumonia and succumbed at the Marion County hospice center three weeks later. Born on March 9, 1923, in Westfield, Mass., Eileen was the third child in the Driscoll family of ten. She lived in Glendale, California, in her early years and spent her school years in Melrose, Mass., where she married Dr. Robert Widdowson in 1943 just after he was drafted into the Navy while in dental school. Robert, who is deceased, and Eileen had three children who survive her: Robert of Belize, Caryl of Gray, Maine, and Janet of Petaluma, California. Eileen also lived for many years on the rocky coast of Lanesville, Mass., a small town adjacent to Gloucester. From the Driscoll family she is survived by two sisters, Jean Cain of Downingtown, Pennsylvania, and Betty Connolly of Melrose; and two brothers, Jack of Rye, N.H., and David of Melrose. She was pre-deceased by sisters Kay Bistany of Fitchburg, Mass., Mary Liz Sheehan of Eugene, Oregon, and Patricia Scarpa of Reading, Mass., as well as brothers James and Robert, both of Melrose. Only a few days before she became ill in December a family memoir entitled, Picnic for Twelve, written by her brother Jack Driscoll, was published, and she received the first copy. In the acknowledgments Jack wrote that Eileen was the "go-to person" for family information. " She has a knack for remembering anecdotes," he wrote. Services will be held at the Roberts Bruce Chapel East, 2739 SE Maricamp Rd; Ocala 34471 on Saturday, January 19th at 10 a.m. A social Driscoll family gathering will be held in Melrose this summer, at her request. DANIELS, PAT

In memory of a wonderful woman. Pat Daniels was my wife and my dearest friend. She was funny, witty, down to earth, and wise enough to see through to the nugget of truth in any problem. Anyone who knew her would testify to her kindness and warmth, always ready to extend a hand to help in whatever way she could. Yet she was also a woman who could battle a disease as horrible as ovarian cancer over the course of four years, every day ready to do battle and face pain while finding the courage and energy to worry about the man she loved. During all the time of treatments with their nausea, hair loss, loss of taste to the point where no food or food smell was bearable, fatigue profound enough to keep her in bed for ten or eleven hours, she could put her arms around me and with her smile and kiss give me the strength to battle on along side her. After her diagnosis she never once gave up. Instead, she was determined to wring every last ounce of life from the time allotted to her. Only after we reached the time when no remaining treatment option offered a decent chance of a good response did Pat decide to end aggressive treatment and enjoy the time remaining for her. During those last weeks she loved me and tried to make her many friends as happy as possible. When the end finally came on January 25th and the fire in her eyes went out for the last time, I along with the rest of the world lost a wonderful, wonderful woman whose like will never be seen again. May she rest in peace. Published in Ocala Star-Banner from January 30 to January 31, 2013

DANIELS, PAT

In memory of a wonderful woman. Pat Daniels was my wife and my dearest friend. She was funny, witty, down to earth, and wise enough to see through to the nugget of truth in any problem. Anyone who knew her would testify to her kindness and warmth, always ready to extend a hand to help in whatever way she could. Yet she was also a woman who could battle a disease as horrible as ovarian cancer over the course of four years, every day ready to do battle and face pain while finding the courage and energy to worry about the man she loved. During all the time of treatments with their nausea, hair loss, loss of taste to the point where no food or food smell was bearable, fatigue profound enough to keep her in bed for ten or eleven hours, she could put her arms around me and with her smile and kiss give me the strength to battle on along side her. After her diagnosis she never once gave up. Instead, she was determined to wring every last ounce of life from the time allotted to her. Only after we reached the time when no remaining treatment option offered a decent chance of a good response did Pat decide to end aggressive treatment and enjoy the time remaining for her. During those last weeks she loved me and tried to make her many friends as happy as possible. When the end finally came on January 25th and the fire in her eyes went out for the last time, I along with the rest of the world lost a wonderful, wonderful woman whose like will never be seen again. May she rest in peace. Published in Ocala Star-Banner from January 30 to January 31, 2013

He made a smile of sunshine
He molded a heart of pure gold.

She loved playing cards with her lady friends, making flower arrangements and decorating for every holiday. Betty was a blessing in our lives.

All of us who were touched by her love deeply miss her, but we are comforted by the thought that she is now peacefully resting in God's arms.

BURGESON, CAROLINE LEE

Ocala - Caroline Lee Burgeson, owner of The Paddock Room Galleries in Ocala, Florida passed away peacefully at her home Sunday evening, February 24th, 2013.

Caroline was predeceased in 1991 by her beloved husband Edward Burgeson. The couple moved to Marion County at the end of the 1960s and after noting the lack of stores catering to decorative items opened a 500 square-foot store on Silver Springs Blvd. They quickly discovered that Ocala was serious about horses and tentatively stocked a small collection of horse related items. When all items sold within the first part of the first day, they had discovered their niche and fell in love with the equine industry. The wonderful landmark store was moved to its final location at 226 E. Silver Springs Blvd in 1978 and quickly grew to nearly 4,500 square feet, stocking items specific to equine activities, including fox hunting, eventing, driving, polo and horse racing. Along with loyal farm owners and residents of Ocala and the surrounding area the business grew to include buyers from around the country and the world, some of whom would visit the store while in town to purchase horses at the Ocala Breeder's Sale auction or participate in the winter Hits (Horses in the Sun) competition.

Since Ed's passing The Paddock Room Galleries had been Caroline's passion. She was dedicated to her clientele and proud of her loyalty to her customers. Caroline was both owner and operator of her unique store right up until the end of 2012 when she decided to close the store and semi-retire. BURGESON, CAROLINE LEE

Ocala - Caroline Lee Burgeson, owner of The Paddock Room Galleries in Ocala, Florida passed away peacefully at her home Sunday evening, February 24th, 2013.

Along with loyal farm owners and residents of Ocala and the surrounding area the business grew to include buyers from around the country and the world, some of whom would visit the store while in town to purchase horses at the Ocala Breeder's Sale auction or participate in the winter Hits (Horses in the Sun) competition.

BURGESON, CAROLINE LEE

Ocala - Caroline Lee Burgeson, owner of The Paddock Room Galleries in Ocala, Florida passed away peacefully at her home Sunday evening, February 24th, 2013.

Caroline was predeceased in 1991 by her beloved husband Edward Burgeson. The couple moved to Marion County at the end of the 1960s and after noting the lack of stores catering to decorative items opened a 500 square-foot store on Silver Springs Blvd. They quickly discovered that Ocala was serious about horses and tentatively stocked a small collection of horse related items. When all items sold within the first part of the first day, they had discovered their niche and fell in love with the equine industry. The wonderful landmark store was moved to its final location at 226 E. Silver Springs Blvd in 1978 and quickly grew to nearly 4,500 square feet, stocking items specific to equine activities, including fox hunting, eventing, driving, polo and horse racing. Along with loyal farm owners and residents of Ocala and the surrounding area the business grew to include buyers from around the country and the world, some of whom would visit the store while in town to purchase horses at the Ocala Breeder's Sale auction or participate in the winter Hits (Horses in the Sun) competition.

Since Ed's passing The Paddock Room Galleries had been Caroline's passion. She was dedicated to her clientele and proud of her loyalty to her customers. Caroline was both owner and operator of her unique store right up until the end of 2012 when she decided to close the store and semi-retire. Her store lives on via her website as her legacy to the horse community and equine industry that she loved so well. She will be dearly missed by many.

Memorial Service will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 16th, at Roberts Downtown Chapel, 606 SW 2nd Ave., Ocala.

HUNTLEY, NANCY LEE, 77

To know Nancy was to know love. Her infectious smile could light up the world. Nancy was a very special little lady that was always on the go; organizing events, helping those

Whether it be painting a canvas, making a flower arrangement or decorating a room for a gathering, she put love into everything she touched.

Nancy attended Citra United Methodist Church, Citra Improvement Society and was an active member in the community. So much love packed into a pint-sized person, she left a trail of sunshine wherever she would go.

ARMOUR, HARRIET, 97

Ocala - Harriet Armour, life long resident of Ocala passed away Thursday April 25, 2013.

Harriet was born April 5, 1916 on 3rd Street in Ocala to the late William Lyman Armour and Florence Walters Armour. Her brother was the late Jay Lyman Armour. Harriet was proud to be from Ocala and held the distinction of being the oldest member in years of service to the First United Methodist Church of Ocala. She loved her church and Sunday school class and attended regularly until the last few years.

In her youth Harriet graduated from Ocala High School in 1933. She was fun loving, loved to sing and dance and was happy to tell stories of fun teen times at Johnson Beach at Lake Weir. She even remembered the scandalous days of Ma Barker and the boys.

After high school and during the war years Harriet worked in Atlanta and Washington D.C. for the Pentagon. Family needed her and she returned to Ocala where she had a successful thirty year career with The Federal Farmer's Home Administration. She was modern before her time, traveling the state by herself and becoming a strong independent woman.

Harriet's greatest love was helping others and her family. She took care of an aunt who lived with her and always was like a mother to her nieces and nephews through several generations of children. In retirement Harriet volunteered for Meals on Wheels and received an award for outstanding volunteer service.

SIEWERT, BURT P.

Burt was born on August 8, 1930 to Fred and Minnie (Peters) Siewert in Brooklyn, NY. He graduated from Franklin K. Lane High School in Brooklyn in 1948. He married Thelma Worster of Kingman, Maine in April 1954.

Burt joined the Navy in 1951, serving 4 years as an electrician's mate class "B" aboard the USS Amphion out of Norfolk, VA. After leaving the Navy, he worked nights at United Airlines while attending the RCA Institute in NYC during the day. In 1957 he was hired by GE and moved his family to Utica, NY, where he spent the next 33 years working on numerous projects such as Skybolt, Titan II, VADS PIP, AC130 Gunship, and E2C radar.

In retirement, Burt and his wife Thelma traveled extensively. In addition to yearly visits to see children, grandchildren, and other relatives, Burt and Thelma traveled to Italy, Germany, Belgium, Norway, Spain, France, China, Australia, New Zealand, the Caribbean, Canada, California, Washington, Wyoming, Alaska, and Hawaii.

Burt loved to tackle interesting and challenging home improvement projects. Over the years, he renovated a kitchen, built decks and patios, installed a pool, paneled rooms in Utica and Kingman, ME., and built a combination playhouse/observatory to help keep his children active and intellectually stimulated. We have many fond memories of our time with Burt, and many stories ranging from tracking bear in Maine with his father-in-law carrying a rifle with an empty chamber, to riding in a hot air balloon over South Dakota chasing herds of bison, a glider ride over Long Island, and a very special visit to Tracadie, New Brunswick to see a total solar eclipse in 1972. We will miss him and his (occasionally never ending) stories greatly.

Besides wife Thelma, Burt leaves behind, son Jeff and wife Karen Siewert of Monkton, VT; grandson Erik of Syracuse, NY; granddaughter Casey of Sacramento, CA. He also leaves behind daughter Sandra and her husband Bill Crescenzo of Longs, SC and granddaughter Kristen of W. Babylon, NY; as well as daughter Janice Owens and her husband Bill, and granddaughter Abigail of New Hartford, NY. He also leaves nieces: Janet Knight, Gail Verra and husband Mike of Westbury, NY, and Jean Scalora, husband Pat of Flanders, NJ. Also left behind are nephews: Randy Siewert of Locust Grove, OK; Burt Siewert and his wife, Rosa, of Locust Grove, OK; and nephew Ray and his wife Rose, of Eustis, FL.

SIEWERT, BURT P.

Burt joined the Navy in 1951, serving 4 years as an electrician's mate class "B" aboard the USS Amphion out of Norfolk, VA. After leaving the Navy, he worked nights at United Airlines while attending the RCA Institute in NYC during the day. In 1957 he was hired by GE and moved his family to Utica, NY, where he spent the next 33 years working on numerous projects such as Skybolt, Titan II, VADS PIP, AC130 Gunship, and E2C radar.

In retirement, Burt and his wife Thelma traveled extensively. In addition to yearly visits to see children, grandchildren, and other relatives, Burt and Thelma traveled to Italy, Germany, Belgium, Norway, Spain, France, China, Australia, New Zealand, the Caribbean, Canada, California, Washington, Wyoming, Alaska, and Hawaii.

Burt loved to tackle interesting and challenging home improvement projects. Over the years, he renovated a kitchen, built decks and patios, installed a pool, paneled rooms in Utica and Kingman, ME., and built a combination playhouse/observatory to help keep his children active and intellectually stimulated. We have many fond memories of our time with Burt, and many stories ranging from tracking bear in Maine with his father-in-law carrying a rifle with an empty chamber, to riding in a hot air balloon over South Dakota chasing herds of bison, a glider ride over Long Island, and a very special visit to Tracadie, New Brunswick to see a total solar eclipse in 1972. We will miss him and his (occasionally never ending) stories greatly.

TOTH, CARL FRANK, 81

Ocala - Carl Frank Toth, born Sept 5th, 1931, a prestigious man of academic achievements, humor and care, who had accomplished a successful career of 35 years in education, died on April 5th, 2013, at the age of 81. His focus was to develop programs that would help his students build their knowledge and dreams.

Carl's love extended to his surviving children; Shelley Roop, Mitchell Toth, C.J. Toth and Heather Robinson. His major influence in life was with his parents, Arpad Toth senior, Emma Toth and surviving brother Arpad Toth.

After retiring, Carl moved to Ocala Florida. He enjoyed golf, cooking, his grandchildren and socializing with his friends.

Unfortunately, Carl suffered from health issues. He was a strong man, but his physical conditions led him into his last journey to the Estelle House, Hospice. There he was happy until he passed somberly.

In his last wishes, he did not request a traditional funeral. He wanted his family and friends to celebrate life and to express to everyone that he enjoyed each connection with deep endearment.

The family has graciously requested that instead of sending flowers, the best way to remember him would be sending donations to the Estelle house. The care he received was a 5-star experience and the caregivers at this facility were amazing. The address for Estelle house is, (Hospice of Marion County) P.O. Box 4860, Ocala, FL 34478.

His life long joy was to instill critical thinking and to experience life with laughter and journeys beyond our belief. We all hope it carries on.

Tom learned to fly prior to joining the United States Air Force, then experiencing the joy of serving his country in the USAF while living the excitement and drama of overseas deployment. He flew the P51 Mustang in the service, and this experience became the core of his later memories. TOTH, CARL FRANK, 81

Ocala - Carl Frank Toth, born Sept 5th, 1931, a prestigious man of academic achievements, humor and care, who had accomplished a successful career of 35 years in education, died on April 5th, 2013, at the age of 81. His focus was to develop programs that would help his students build their knowledge and dreams.

Carl's love extended to his surviving children; Shelley Roop, Mitchell Toth, C.J. Toth and Heather Robinson. His major influence in life was with his parents, Arpad Toth senior, Emma Toth and surviving brother Arpad Toth.

After retiring, Carl moved to Ocala Florida. He enjoyed golf, cooking, his grandchildren and socializing with his friends.

Unfortunately, Carl suffered from health issues. He was a strong man, but his physical conditions led him into his last journey to the Estelle House, Hospice. There he was happy until he passed somberly.

In his last wishes, he did not request a traditional funeral. He wanted his family and friends to celebrate life and to express to everyone that he enjoyed each connection with deep endearment.

The family has graciously requested that instead of sending flowers, the best way to remember him would be sending donations to the Estelle house. The care he received was a 5-star experience and the caregivers at this facility were amazing. The address for Estelle house is, (Hospice of Marion County) P.O. Box 4860, Ocala, FL 34478.

His life long joy was to instill critical thinking and to experience life with laughter and journeys beyond our belief. We all hope it carries on.
